Doing Time United States. Congress. House. Committee on Oversight and Government Reform. Subcommittee on Federal Workforce, Postal Service, and the District of Columbia,2009 Rhymes for Doing Time James Perkins,2023-10-11 Rhymes for Doing Time provides a unique opportunity to use real life situations that come up every day in prison or upon release to help a prisoner develop a closer walk with God and to make their time easier knowing that they may be just an inmate to the guards or even to the world but they are or can become a child of the Most High God The book has a page for every day and is formatted so that it describes a situation that happened to a prisoner describing how he or she reacted to different situations that came up Then it shows a situation that happened to a person or persons in the Bible and then it draws a practical or a spiritual application between the two It gives people a chance to realize that the Bible is living and practical and it shows them that the same God back in Bible times hasn t changed one bit The book also has inspirational poems that were written by the author to uplift his friends They are perfect for prisoners to send to their families in cards and letters for everything from birthdays to holidays Doing Time Lonnie Starling,2008-10 This volume describes the day to day lives of prisoners in the Florida State correctional system and also those who risk their lives guarding them The author and former prison guard describes the violence and other drama that goes on behind the locked doors of the penal system He writes of the rules of survival that every inmate must learn to live to live by He describes his job as a prison guard and his learning of the signs signals and codes the inmates use in order to ensure his safety and that of the other guards He recounts emergency calls acts of heroism hostage situations fire and murders as well as one man s story of how he was hired from his delivery truck and thrown into a life threatening career Doing Time Bell Gale Chevigny,2011-11-01 A special collection of the best fiction essays poetry and plays from annual PEN Prison Writing contest offers unique insights into the emotions and thoughts engendered by the prison experience ranging from humor and empathy to rage fear and despair 15 000 first printing Forget You Had a Daughter - Doing Time in the Bangkok Hilton Sandra Gregory,2013-08-05 Sandra Gregory seemed to have the perfect life in Bangkok until illness unemployment and political unrest turned it into a nightmare Desperate to get home by any means possible she agreed to smuggle an addict s personal supply of heroin She didn t even make it onto the plane In this remarkably candid memoir Sandra Gregory tells the full story of the events leading up to her arrest the horrific conditions in Lard Yao prison her trial in a language she didn t understand and how it feels to be sentenced to death Sandra finally resumed her journey home some four and a half years later when she was transferred to the British prison system and had to adapt to a new yet equally harsh regime Following relentless campaigning by her parents who refused to forget they had a daughter she was pardoned by the King of Thailand and released in 2000 Forget You Had a Daughter is the extraordinary story of an ordinary British woman who made a mistake that changed the rest of her life Doing Time for Peace Rosalie G. Riegle,2013-01-07 In this compelling collection of oral histories more than seventy five peacemakers describe how they say no to war making in the strongest way possible by engaging in civil disobedience and paying the consequences in jail or prison These courageous resisters leave family and community and life on the outside in their efforts to direct U S policy away from its militarism Many are Catholic Workers devoting their lives to the works of mercy instead of the works of war They are homemakers and carpenters and social workers and teachers who are often called faith based activists They speak from the left of the political perspective providing a counterpoint to the faith based activism of the fundamentalist Right In their own words the narrators describe their motivations and their preparations for acts of resistance the actions themselves and their trials and subsequent jail time We hear from those who do their time by caring for their families and managing communities while their partners are imprisoned Spouses and children talk frankly of the strains on family ties that a life of working for peace in the world can cause The voices range from a World War II conscientious objector to those protesting the recent war in Iraq The book includes sections on resister families the Berrigans and Jonah House the Plowshares Communities the Syracuse Peace Council and Catholic Worker houses and communities The introduction by Dan McKanan situates these activists in the long tradition of resistance to war and witness to peace

Doing Time A. R. Johnson,2022-09-15 Doing Time opens the prison doors to take you on a journey behind the razorwire through the genuine gritty reality of life Inside Follow a light hearted and often hilarious guide as you learn to see and navigate the scenes of incarceration from angles you didn t even know were there A must read for those currently Inside or with a loved one serving time true crime fans and anyone interested in criminal justice
