Presenting Australia:

Presenting Australia Dalys Conlon, Dalys Newman, 1985-10      Australia And The British Embrace Stuart Ward, 2016-10-18 Until a generation ago Britishness lay at the heart of Australian political culture How and why did this fundamental idea lose its meaning for Australians and their political institutions The popular view is that the British ideal succumbed to a triumphant long thwarted Australian nationalism The reality is much more complex Having weighed the documentary evidence Stuart Ward vigorously argues that it was not Australia but the Mother Country that set the pace The critical move was the Macmillan Government's decision in the early 1960s to seek membership of the European Economic Community Thereafter the ties of imperial sentiment and the dictates of national self interest were essentially irreconcilable Australia's attachment to being British was profoundly shaken and the contours of Australian nationhood were irreversibly redrawn Australia and the British Embrace is an engrossing account of the unravelling of Britishness in Australian political life The consequences of that unravelling continue to dominate Australian politics from multiculturalism to Aboriginal reconciliation engagement with Asia and above all the prospect of a republic      Presenting Australia Bruce Elder, 2000 This work portrays Australia's history geography ecology economy and politics Lavishly illustrated the book provides a visual portrait of all aspects of the country including its people wildlife and landscapes spanning from Aboriginal times to the current multicultural climate      APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service ,      Colonies of the World Edward John Payne, 1928      White Nation Ghassan Hage, 2012-11-12 Anthropologist and social critic Ghassan Hage explores one of the most complex and troubling of modern phenomena the desire for a white nation      Australia's Relations with China David Fitzsimmons, 2022-09-08 Drawing on a wealth of interviews with more than fifty key stakeholders from Australia and China including five former Australian Prime Ministers Fitzsimmons presents a history and analysis of Australian Chinese relations since 1972 Fitzsimmons systematically examines how Canberra formulates and implements Australia's China policy and how PMs and key influencers have made that policy over the last fifty years Next it analyses the style manner and effectiveness of Australian Prime Ministers and other key foreign policy makers in making Australian policy on China Next it charts how Australian policy on China has changed over different political periods It also highlights Australian policy to China as a global case study for other countries who are closely examining and learning lessons from how one Asia Pacific middle power has dealt with the Chinese colossus An essential guide for students of Australia's international relations as well as for scholars of international relations more broadly      The History of Nations Henry Cabot Lodge, 1928      The Impact of the United Nations Human Rights Treaties on the Domestic Level Christof Heyns, Frans Viljoen, 2021-08-04 The six main United Nations human rights treaties enjoy almost universal ratification today Almost 80 per cent of the possible ratifications have been made and every Member State of the UN has ratified at least one of these treaties The nearly universal acceptance of the treaties on the formal level however does not automatically translate into the norms contained in these documents being made a reality in the lives of the billions of people living in these countries The treaty system is notoriously weak in terms of international enforcement and there is a general suspicion that it has had little impact at the domestic level Mechanisms to improve the international enforcement mechanisms of the six main treaties have been a topic of discussion and research for many years but the domestic impact of the treaties has never been investigated in a systematic and comprehensive manner This book constitutes the most ambitious attempt so far to establish the impact of the treaties at the domestic level The following treaties in 20 United Nations Member States are investigated the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination the Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights the Covenant on Civil and Political Rights the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women the Convention Against Torture and the Convention on the Rights of the Child This book reflects the findings of 20 researchers based in the countries investigated under the leadership of Professors Christof Heyns and Frans Viljoen of the Centre for Human Rights University of Pretoria in a study done in co operation with the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights The influence of the treaties in each of the 20 countries is investigated in respect of its influence on the continuation legislation court cases policies and practices and the impact of the treaty system in civil society In an overview chapter by the study leaders based on a comparison of the available data common trends and patterns are identified and recommendations about reforms on the national and international level are made This is a book that should be read by all those interested in the development of the international human rights system

Marketing and Globalization Aurélia Durand,2018-07-17 This concise text focuses squarely on the issues facing marketers in an increasingly global world It identifies several trends linking them together and positioning them as marketing practices that companies implement as a way of responding to the major consequences of globalization The book also includes case studies to illustrate new practices and allow students to discuss issues of market selection entry modes segmentation targeting and positioning as well as product price distribution promotion and corporate communication policies in a globalized world Durand s unique approach moves beyond marketing management and strategy issues and provides students with the broader context to understand the marketing practices they ll use in the real world This book will prove to be an essential resource for any student of marketing and international business working to stay ahead in an increasingly competitive and global industry
