

Reading Comprehension

GRADE 8

WEEK 15

Compare and Contrast

Students practice comparing and contrasting by looking at similarities and differences between two or more people or things.

Make Inferences

Students practice making inferences by using clues in a passage to understand what is being implied.

DAY
1

Review the Compare and Contrast skill with students. Say: To make a comparison, look for how two or more things are alike. To make a contrast, look for how two or more things are different. Tell students they are going to read about the similarities and differences between the way people ate in the past and the way people eat today. Then remind students of the Make Inferences strategy (Week 2). Say: To make a text-to-self connection, think about how the passage relates to your own life. This will help you better engage with and understand the text content. Have students read the passage. Then direct them to complete the skill and strategy.

Name: _____

Make Inferences

WEEK 15
DAY 3

READ THE PASSAGE

Use what you know and what you read in the passage to make inferences.

A Question of Leadership

At first, Karminder was very happy to be invited to join the Leadership Club at her high school. Some girls she really admired were a part of the club. Karminder thought that she might learn something about achieving goals and expressing ideas if she were a member, too. Within a few hours of being invited into the group, however, Karminder was already starting to worry. She wondered, "I'm only a freshman. How can I consider me a leader? I haven't led anything, compared to the rest of the group."

Karminder was anxious that if she did join the club, the rest of the members might think she did not deserve to be there. She was afraid they might think she was a phony or an impostor. As time went on, Karminder thought it might be best to not join after all.

A week later, Alicia and Inez, two of the senior girls in the club, sat down on either side of Karminder at lunch. When Karminder finally shared her concerns, Alicia and Inez began to laugh. "Oh, Karminder!" Inez said, "It's not like we know how to lead anything when we joined. That's the point of the club—to learn!"

"Yes," said Alicia, "you find out about qualities that good leaders have and habits that help them be successful. Even if you're never the president of anything, the club can help you." Alicia smiled, and Karminder felt at peace with her decision.

"That's what I needed to hear," said Karminder. "Sign me up!"

SKILL PRACTICE

Read the items. Write your responses.

1. Why did Karminder worry about joining the Leadership Club?
