House Beautiful, 1906 Castles Naomi Reed Kline, 1985 Anne, Princess of Everything Blanche Elizabeth Wade, 1916 Why There is Something Rather Than Nothing Bede Rundle, 2004 Why should there be anything at all Why in particular should a material world exist Bede Rundle advances clear non technical answers to these perplexing questions If as the theist maintains God is a being who cannot but exist his existence explains why there is something rather than nothing However this can also be explained on the basis of a weaker claim Not that there is some particular being that has to be but simply that there has to be something or other Rundle proffers arguments for thinking that that is indeed how the question is to be put to rest Traditionally the existence of the physical universe is held to depend on God but the theist faces a major difficulty in making clear how a being outside space and time as God is customarily conceived to be could stand in an intelligible relation to the world whether as its creator or as the author of events within it Rundle argues that a creator of physical reality is not required since there is no alternative to its existence There has to be something and a physical universe is the only real possibility He supports this claim by eliminating rival contenders he dismisses the supernatural and argues that while other forms of being notably the abstract and the mental are not reducible to the physical they presuppose its existence The question whether ultimate explanations can ever be given is forever in the background and the book concludes with an investigation of this issue and of the possibility that the universe could have existed for an infinite time Other topics discussed include causality space verifiability essence existence necessity spirit fine tuning and laws of Nature Why There Is Something Rather Than Nothing offers an explanation of fundamental facts of existence in purely philosophical terms without appeal either to theology or cosmology It will provoke and intrigue anyone who wonders about these questions
