Mental Images A Defence:

Mental Images: a Defence Alastair Hannay,2002 Mental Images, a Defense Alastair Hannay,1971 Thinking in Images Piotr Kozak,2023-04-20 What does it mean to think with images There is a well established tradition of studying thought processes through the nature of language and we know much more about thinking with language than about thinking with images Piotr Kozak takes an important step towards rectifying this position Presenting a unified theory of different types of images such as diagrams maps technical drawings and photographs Kozak argues that images provide a genuine and autonomous form of content and knowledge In contrast to the propositional view of thinking and resemblance based accounts he puts forward a measurement theoretic account of images as operations that exemplify measures revealing the outcomes of measurement operations performed on a depicted situation Bringing together insights from philosophy of science picture theory cognitive science and cognitive psychology this book demonstrates that we can only understand what an image is if we truly understand the role they play in our thought processes challenging the prevailing view that the utility of images is only instrumental and cognitively inferior Journal of Mental Imagery ,1996 Recent Work in Philosophy Kenneth G. Lucey,Tibor R. Machan,1983 Experiencing Phenomenology Joel Smith,2016-03-31 Phenomenology is the general study of the structure of experience from thought and perception to self consciousness bodily awareness and emotion It is both a fundamental area of philosophy and a major methodological approach within the human sciences Experiencing Phenomenology is an outstanding introduction to phenomenology Approaching fundamental phenomenological questions from a critical systematic perspective whilst paying careful attention to classic phenomenological texts the book possesses a clarity and breadth that will be welcomed by students coming to the subject for the first time Accessibly written each chapter relates classic phenomenological discussions to contemporary issues and debates in philosophy The following key topics are introduced and explained the methodological foundations of phenomenology intentionality as the mark of the mental and the problem of non existent objects perceptual experience including our awareness of things properties and events the experience of body self and others imaginative and emotional experience detailed discussions of classical phenomenological texts including Brentano s Psychology from an Empirical Standpoint Husserl s Logical Investigations Cartesian Meditations and On the Phenomenology of the Consciousness of Internal Time Heidegger s History of The Concept of Time and Being and Time Stein s On the Problem of Empathy Sartre s Transcendence of the Ego Sketch for a Theory of the Emotions and The Imaginary Merleau Ponty s Phenomenology of Perception Also included is a glossary of key terms and suggestions for further reading making this book an ideal starting point for anyone new to the study of phenomenology not only in Philosophy but related disciplines such as Psychology and Sociology American Philosophical Quarterly Nicholas Rescher,1995 Iconoclasm from Antiquity to Modernity Kristine Kolrud,Marina Prusac,2016-12-05 The phenomenon of iconoclasm expressed through hostile actions towards images has occurred in many different cultures throughout history The destruction and mutilation of images is often motivated by a blend of political and religious ideas and beliefs and the distinction between various kinds of iconoclasms is not absolute In order to explore further the long and varied history of iconoclasm the contributors to this volume consider iconoclastic reactions to various types of objects both in the very recent and distant past The majority focus on historical periods but also on history as a backdrop for image troubles of our own day Development over time is a central question in the volume and cross cultural influences are also taken into consideration This broad approach provides a useful comparative perspective both on earlier controversies over images and relevant issues today In the multimedia era increased awareness of the possible consequences of the use of images is of utmost importance Iconoclasm from Antiquity to Modernity approaches some of the problems related to the display of particular kinds of images in conflicted societies and the power to decide on the use of visual means of expression It provides a deeper understanding of the mechanisms of the phenomenon of iconoclasm Of interest to a wide group of scholars the contributors draw upon various sources and disciplines including art history cultural history religion and archaeology as well as making use of recent research from within social and political sciences and contemporary events Whilst the texts are addressed primarily to those researching the Western world the volume contains material which will also be of interest to students of the Middle East   Perceptual Imagination and Perceptual Memory Fiona Macpherson,Fabian Dorsch,2018-05-30 In Perceptual Imagination and Perceptual Memory a group of distinguished contributors examine how perceptual imagination and memory resemble and differ from each other and from other kinds of sensory experience They question the role each plays in perception and in the acquisition of knowledge The collection discusses the epistemic roles that the imagination and memory play in our mental lives It pushes forward the debates about the nature of perceptual imagination and perceptual memory This innovative study will encourage future discussions on these interesting topics by students and scholars in the field This volume presents ten new essays on the nature of perceptual imagination and perceptual memory framed by an introductory overview of these topics How do perceptual imagination and memory resemble and differ from each other and from other kinds of sensory experience And what role does each play in perception and in the acquisition of knowledge These are the two central questions that the contributors seek to address   The Philosopher's Index ,2008 Vols for 1969 include a section of abstracts   Mind ,1907 A quarterly review of philosophy   The Philosophical Review Jacob Gould Schurman,James Edwin Creighton,Frank Thilly,Gustavus Watts Cunningham,1974 An international journal of general philosophy   Behaviorism ,1980   Visual Imagery and Its Relation to Problem Solving Geir Kaufmann,1979   Leonardo ,1975 International journal of contemporary visual artists   The Philosophy of Mind Richard Lindley,J. M. Shorter,1978   The Philosopher's Index: Subject index ,1980   The Oxford Companion to Philosophy Ted Honderich,1995 This is the most authoritative and engaging philosophical reference work in English It gives clear and reliable guidance to all areas of philosophy and to the
