Burayidi, Alfred Kisubi, 1998-01-13 This accessible challenging discussion of race relations looks at how institutions shape individual experience and asks how we can prevent a violent splintering of American society along racial lines in the 21st century Arguing that the best way to understand race relations is through the personal accounts of individuals as they go through the life cycle this highly readable book uses real life stories to illuminate how families peer groups and workplaces influence views about other racial and ethnic groups The authors hope to inspire readers to intervene and counteract negative perceptions of racial difference through their open frank discussion of the racial divide
