The Racing Tribe Kate Fox, 2017-09-08 It is generally assumed that anthropologists do their research in remote and uncomfortable parts of the world places with monsoons mud huts and malaria In this volume social anthropologist Kate Fox has taken on an altogether more enjoyable assignment the study of the arcane world of British horseracing For Fox field research meant wandering around racetracks in a pink hat and high heels standard tribal costume rather than braving killer insects and primitive sanitation Instead of an amorphous racing crowd the author finds a complete subculture with its own distinctive customs rituals language and etiquette Among the spectators she identifies Horseys Addicts Anoraks Pair Bonders Day Outers Suits and Be Seens all united by remarkable friendliness and courtesy Among the racing professionals the tribal structure includes Warriors jockeys Shamans trainers Scribes journalists Elders officials and stewards and Sin Eaters bookies Fox includes witty and incisive descriptions of the many strange ceremonies and rituals observed by racegoers the Circuit Ritual Ritual Conversations What do you fancy in the next Celebration Rituals the Catwalk Ritual and Post Mortem Rituals naturally a horse never loses a race because it s too slow and their special codes of behavior such as the Modesty Rule the Collective Amnesia Rule and the Code of Chivalry The Racing Tribe is also a refreshingly candid account of anthropological fieldwork including all the embarrassing mistakes hiccups short cuts and guesswork that most social scientists keep very quiet about conventional history and post Edwardian sensibilities not to mention Spank me Sally this very funny story is about the famous 1924 tour as it might have been if there was more sex and less etiquette than the rugby historians would have us believe What happens on tour stays on tour but then there is Beau Baxter cad bounder and possibly All Black Funny earthy direct and unforgettable Ivan Dunn a journalist with over 44 years experience internationally lives on the North Shore Auckland A passionate rugby fan he has had a great deal of fun imagining what might have happened if there had been a mysterious extra man on tour with the Invincibles in 1924 *S.A.
