A Shadow over Palestine Keith P. Feldman, 2015-04-15 Winner Best Book in Humanities and Cultural Studies Literary Studies Association for Asian American Studies Upon signing the first U S arms agreement with Israel in 1962 John F Kennedy assured Golda Meir that the United States had a special relationship with Israel in the Middle East comparable only to that of the United States with Britain After more than five decades such a statement might seem incontrovertible and yet its meaning has been fiercely contested from the start A Shadow over Palestine brings a new deeply informed and transnational perspective to the decades and the cultural forces that have shaped sharply differing ideas of Israel's standing with the United States right up to the violent divisions of today Focusing on the period from 1960 to 1985 author Keith P Feldman reveals the centrality of Israel and Palestine in postwar U S imperial culture Some representations of the region were used to manufacture commonsense racial ideologies underwriting the conviction that liberal democracy must coexist with racialized conditions of segregation border policing poverty and the repression of dissent Others animated vital critiques of these conditions often forging robust if historically obscured border crossing alternatives In this rich cultural history of the period Feldman deftly analyzes how artists intellectuals and organizations from the United Nations the Black Panther Party and the Association of Arab American University Graduates to James Baldwin Daniel Patrick Moynihan Edward Said and June Jordan linked the unfulfilled promise of liberal democracy in the United States with the perpetuation of settler democracy in Israel and the possibility of Palestine's decolonization In one of his last essays published in 2003 Edward Said wrote In America Palestine and Israel are regarded as local not foreign policy matters A Shadow over Palestine maps this jagged terrain on which this came to be amid a wealth of robust alternatives and the undeterred violence at home and abroad unleashed as a result of this special relationship and action An ambitious and provocative work War Remains ventures to the so called margins to archive the texture and substance rendered invisible when studies of memory rely solely on data furnished by official narratives and military accounts of war Journal of Palestine Studies ,1995 Land/Relations Smaro Kamboureli,Larissa Lai,2023-04-18 Essential reading for those interested in questions of justice and cultural representation Land Relations speaks to and moves beyond the critical junctures in the study of Canadian literatures today In the aftermath of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and following Canada s sesquicentennial Land Relations presents a collaborative effort at what Smaro Kamboureli and Larissa Lai call counter memory a collective effort to recognise relationships that have always been between peoples between humanity and other living forms between us and the land in an effort to avoid erasure loss and trauma Twenty influential literary critics engage a variety of genres essay life writing testament polemic poetry to explore the ways Canadian cultural production has been shaped by social and historical relations and can be given new and various forms to decolonize the institutions associated with the creation of this country s vision of Canadian literature Myths, Historical Archetypes, and Symbolic Figures in Arabic Literature Angelika Neuwirth,1999 World Literature Today ,1995 The Object of Memory Susan Slyomovics,1998 Well researched and written with passion and elegance International Journal of Middle East Studies Beirut 1975-1990 Sofia Toufic Shwayri,2002 Beirut the Lebanese capital was for more than fifteen years a battlefield of conflicting interests that shifted between phases of destruction and phases of construction Much of the research into the city s 1975 1990 war period has often focused on the spaces of divisions highlighting the factions that helped erect and maintain them and overlooking other types of spaces that emerged in parallel such as the informal enclaves and private clubs Meanwhile these narratives lose sight of the continuous struggle of the Lebanese State to sustain its shrinking spatial base and consequently its dwindling political power This dissertation explores the process of urban change during conflict and more specifically how the shifting alliances between warring factions relate to spatial transformation Based on the contemporaneous destruction and construction of particular districts across the city I hypothesize that the interests of emerging groups displaced migrant Shiites businessmen and politicians drove the way certain areas developed and prospered while others declined and dwindled The Politics of Memory and Justice in Post-genocide Rwanda Jody Lee Ranck,1998 Ghazal as World Literature: Transformations of a literary genre Thomas Bauer,Angelika Neuwirth,2005 Mahmoud Darwish, Exile's Poet Hala Khamis Nassar,Najat (ed.) Rahman,2008 Mahmoud Darwish s work has long been considered seminal in shaping modern Arabic poetry He has received wide international recognition and is regarded as a contender for the Nobel Prize Often deemed the Poet of the Resistance no substantial critical study exists that addresses the complexity of Darwish s poetry in rewriting the homeland and articulating exile His later poetry consciously marks a move away from his earlier portrayals of identity home and poetry yet many critics have failed to take note of this shift His oeuvre yokes poetry and history the political and the poetic probing identities in perpetual exile This book examines the complex connections between poetry myth lyric prose and history in Darwish's poetry The scholarly articles in this volume situate his work in relation to both modern Arabic and world poetry In addition the articles address issues such as the future of poetry the role of the poet language cultural heritage lyrical modes as well as the relationship of place and identity

Syria & Lebanon Handbook Ivan Mannheim, 2001 Both Syria and Lebanon still labour under their media stereotypes as places of religious fanaticism terrorism and intractable conflict True the region has had more than its fair share of wars atrocities and suffering and the Arab Israeli conflict continues to cast its tragic shadow Indeed this is a conflict which goes right back to the dawn of history resonating through the Old Testament stories of the origins of the Israelites and the Exodus when Moses led his people from exile in Egypt back to the Promised Land But these same twists of religion history and geography are also what makes this such a fascinating region to visit Forget your preconceptions and go see for yourself the day to day reality on the ground is a world away from the media stereotypes Rather you will find yourself stepping into a wonderful world of breathtakingly beautiful and well preserved historic monuments stunning scenery delicious food and diverse peoples
