Mending Skins:

Mending Skins Eric L. Gansworth, 2005-01-01 Welcome to the Seventh Annual Conference of the Society for Protection and Reclamation of Indian Images Expect to find amid all the refined cultural observations academic posturing and political maneuvering an Indian who defies anyone to protect let alone reclaim her image This is Shirley Mounter a Tuscarora woman and the chief storyteller among the acerbic eloquent and often hilarious speakers who overflow the pages of this latest novel by the noted Onondaga writer Eric Gansworth A lecture on Indian stereotypes by Shirley s daughter art historian Annie Boans calls forth Shirley s recollections whose outpourings deposit us in the turbulent yet restorative waters of modern Iroquoian reservation life always flowing and eddying around kin Indeed Shirley s house and land are now after a long and bitter fight forever lost to her in the construction of a water reservoir that feeds the government s hydroelectric plant The story of this battle is the story of Shirley s generation and the faltering generation that follows of violent love and losses of children turning away only to find themselves forever negotiating the nuances of identity of popular culture in jarring juxtaposition with the sometimes even more incredible realities of Native life Weaving a complex narrative illustrated with his own paintings Gansworth creates a rich wry and multifaceted tapestry of the intricate twists and turns of coincidence memories and stories that bind Native families together

Survivance Gerald Vizenor, 2008-11 In this anthology eighteen scholars discuss the themes and practices of survivance in literature examining the legacy of Vizenor s original insights and exploring the manifestations of survivance in a variety of contexts Contributors interpret and compare the original writings of William Apess Eric Gansworth Louis Owens Carter Revard Gerald Vizenor and Velma Wallis among others
