Quiet Fire:

Gutsy Leah Katz, 2022-05-03 Western society too often trains women out of feeling innately confident in who we are and in the wisdom we hold inside. Instead we are handed down a set of expectations about our bodies, our disposition, our religious identification, our sexual orientation, our mothering, and our career choices. Dr. Leah Katz draws on her training as a psychologist and her experience leaving an ultra-Orthodox Jewish faith and culture to offer tools and insights for getting unstuck from society's unrealistic and often harmful expectations for women that we have adopted as our own. By learning to identify what is holding us back and adopting a mindset of joy, gratitude, and resilience, we can fulfill our dreams and really fulfill ourselves. It's time to get gutsy and create the rich, vibrant life we have always wanted. Gay Midlife and Maturity

John Alan Lee, 1991 Aging is stressful for anyone in youth-oriented Western societies. Elderly people encounter difficulties and discrimination, sometimes because of reduced income, transportation and housing problems, and failing health, but often due to the persistent negative stereotypes that color others' attitudes and behavior toward old people. Gay men and lesbians experience these stresses as well as the numerous additional problems associated with their sexual orientation. Gay Midlife and Maturity is a dynamic and positive volume that challenges the long-held stereotype of the sad and lonely old homosexual. A growing body of international literature, much of which is featured in this book, rejects this myth and illustrates that older gay men and lesbians cope well with the aging process and are comparable to younger homosexuals in social and psychological adjustment. A much-needed and major contribution, Gay Midlife and Maturity contains an enormous amount of information for readers interested in gerontology and homosexuality. Experts for the first time examine the relationship between the adjustment of gay people to later life and the age and sequence of the resolution of these typically early developmental processes, raising many questions about traditional theories of gay development. The existing contradictions and debates about gay men and accelerated aging are addressed. Other valuable chapters focus on a theory of successful aging, a comparison of the traditional gay community pre-Stonewall versus the organized gay community, the vital role of communication in gay relationships, the sexual attitudes and behaviors of older gay men, and much more. Additional interesting and worthwhile chapters of this thought-provoking new book include an in-depth interview with Don Bachardy about his 33-year relationship with Christopher Isherwood, a renowned English writer who was 30 years his senior, and a review of the growing literature on gay aging. Cobbett's Political Register William Cobbett, 1816 The Bridge from Worry to Calm Aurora Lane, 2025-05-13 The Bridge from Worry to Calm is a heartwarming story designed to help children aged 5 to 10 navigate their emotions with mindfulness and emotional regulation. Through the eyes of Aelis, a young child who often feels overwhelmed by their worries, the story introduces an invisible bridge built from small, mindful actions. As Aelis embarks on their journey, they learn how to use deep breathing, self-awareness, and compassionate reflection to cross over their fears and anxieties. This beautifully written tale gently encourages children to embrace moments of stillness, gratitude, and calm.

empowering them to manage their emotions and find peace in any situation Each chapter offers a new lesson in mindfulness with guided exercises that children can practice on their own helping them build confidence resilience and emotional intelligence

Beyond Ego and Destiny: The Return to Alignment C. Blackthorn, 2026-01-31 Beyond Ego and Destiny is a grounded guide for people who are tired of spiritual theater and ready for something real These pages treat alignment as something you live not something you talk about It explores what happens when you stop outsourcing your life to mood fear or the need to be seen and start returning again and again to the Inner Current within all of us that knows what is true You will learn how ego hides in noble language how help can quietly become control and how certainty can harden into a mask You will learn how to hold power without domination how to serve without self erasure and how to build relationships that support sovereignty instead of dependency The work stays practical Boundaries repair consent dignity restraint and the daily choices that determine who you become Part IV moves from philosophy into integration It trains the silent flame the steady passion that lasts when novelty fades It reframes failure as information and mastery as the long road of returning It offers daily anchoring practices and a clear ethical ground for inner sovereignty The book closes with a final practice and a closing letter meant to be carried into real life This is not a system to join or a persona to perform It is a way of living with more honesty steadiness and respect for the shared field you create with others If you are ready to stop chasing peak experiences and start building a life you can inhabit this book will meet you there Inside you ll find How to recognize spiritual ego and subtle manipulation Power without authoritarian control Compassion with boundaries not martyrdom Intimacy without enmeshment Repair that restores trust without punishment The difference between intensity and consistency Daily practices for returning to center A final practice and closing letter to continue the work Alignment is not a mood It is a bearing And you can return to it
