Yachts currently in production

The yachts in this section are all currently in production. We have tried to give an accurate, factual description of the boat; information comes from the builder's brochures.

An index was tab is printed in red at the top right hand corner of the right hand page. The entire 'New Boats' section is marked as an index tab in red on the left hand page.

The name and length of boat are as described in the builder's brochures. The information is presented in ascending order of size.

The main photograph is usually of the boat at sea.

The smaller pictures show details of the interior.

When available, a profile drawing of the boat is included with a drawing of the interior layout.

The Specification has given dimensions as supplied in the builder's brochures. These were not always consistent in their form of presentation. Where information is missing it is because it does not appear in the original brochures.

The Price guide is exactly what it says, a 'guide'. It is based on the price of a standard boat with no extra options. Prices also change with alterations in the currency exchange rate.

Please contact the agent or broker for the most up-to-date details.
