Modernist Sexualities Hugh Stevens, Caroline Howlett, 2000 Leading critics from Britain Canada and the US examine modernism's imaginative rethinkings of sex gender and sexuality Original essays show how modernism intersects with the suffragette movement technological change and its effects on women and labor the growth of pseudo scientific writings and the burgeoning lesbian and gay movement They show how modernism upsets the fixities of gender and sexuality through its fascination with ambiguities marginality and the crossing of borders Sex reformers and sex changers unsexed storytellers typewriters femme and butch experimenters suffragettes in wide brimmed hats musical and dramatic pageants adolescent delinquents sunbathers and dancing indigenes all play a role in the heterodox and varied modernism revealed in these essays

Mediating Modernity Stefanie Harris, 2009 An interdisciplinary examination of the responses of literary authors in Germany from 1895-1930 to the emerging media of image and sound recording Provided by publisher The New

Modernist Studies Douglas Mao, 2021-02-04 This is the first book specifically devoted to the new modernist studies Bringing together a range of perspectives on the past present and future of this vibrant complicated scholarly enterprise the collection reconsiders its achievements and challenges as both a mode of inquiry and an institutional formation In its first section the volume offers a fresh history of the new modernist studies origins amid the intellectual configurations of the end of the twentieth century and changing views of the value influence and scope of modernism In the second section a dozen leading scholars examine recent trends in modernist scholarship to suggest possible new paths of research showing how the field continues to engage with other areas of study and how it makes a case for the ongoing meaning of modernist literature and art in the contemporary world Modernist Anthropocene Peter Adkins, 2022-06-17 The Modernist Anthropocene examines how modernist writers forged new and innovative ways of responding to rapidly changing planetary conditions and emergent ideas about nonhuman life environmental change and the human species Drawing on ecocritical analysis posthumanist theory archival research and environmental history this book resituates key works of modernist fiction within the ecological moment of the early twentieth century a period in which new configurations of the relationship between human life and the natural world were migrating between the sciences philosophy and literary culture The author makes the case that the early twentieth century is pivotal in our understanding of the Anthropocene both as a planetary epoch and a critical concept In doing so he positions James Joyce Djuna Barnes and Virginia Woolf as theorists of the modernist Anthropocene showing how their oeuvres are shaped by and actively respond to changing ideas about the nonhuman that continue to reverberate today Beyond Pleasure: Freud, Lacan, Barthes , From Diversion to Subversion David Getsy,2011 Examines the wide ranging influence of games and play on the development of modern art in the twentieth century Provided by publisher Networking Women Marina Camboni,2004 Modernism and Mildred Walker Carmen Pearson,2008-07 Modernism and Mildred Walker is the first full length critical study of the major fictional works of this American author whose life spanned the twentieth century 1905 98 and whose literary production spanned almost three quarters of a century A highly regarded chronicler of New England and the American West she is also appreciated for her portrayal of women characters and the complexity of women s roles Long beloved by readers of Montana fiction Mildred Walker s novels have been dismissed by some critics as only of regional interest and as Carmen Pearson argues have not been explored and appreciated from other critical perspectives and by other audiences In this persuasive new study Pearson offers a new and decidedly western interpretation of Modernism as a critical tool and proposes a variety of readings and interpretations designed to emphasize the relationship between cultural production in the West and modernism She encourages readers and students of literature to reappraise Walker s work and to undertake further critical studies of their own Reconfiguring Modernism Daniel R. Schwarz,1997 Reconfiguring Modernism explores the relationship between modern literature and modern art Spanning the high modernist period between the late nineteenth century and World War 2 the cultural interrelationships between painters such as Manet Gauguin Cezanne and Picasso and writers such as James Conrad Eliot and Joyce are explored The influence of African Asian and Pacific cultures on European modernism is also examined Schwarz considers texts visual and written of the modern period as a contoured textual field without absolute borders crucial to our understanding of modernism in the last years of the twentieth century Woolf Studies Annual ,2006 Crossing the Borders of German and American Modernism Karen A. Mozingo,2008 Women, Modernism and British Poetry, 1910-1939 Jane Dowson,2002 Primarily a literary history Women Modernism and British Poetry 1910 1939 provides a timely discussion of individual women poets who have become or are becoming well known as their works are reprinted but about whom little has yet been written This volume recognizes the contributions overlooked previously of such British poets as Anna Wickham Nancy Cunard Edith Sitwell Mina Loy Charlotte Mew May Sinclair Vita Sackville West and Sylvia Townsend Warner and the impact of such American poets as H D Amy Lowell Edna St Vincent Millay Marianne Moore and Laura Riding on literary practice in Britain This book primarily maps the poetry scene in Britain but identifies the significance of the network of writers between London New York and Paris It assesses women s participation in the diversity of modernist developments which include avant garde experiments quiet but subtly challenging formalism and assertive new woman voices It not only chronicles women s poetry but also their publications and involvement in running presses bookshops and writing criticism Although historically situated it is written from the perspective of contemporary debates concerning the interface of gender and modernism The author argues that a cohering aesthetic of the poetry is a denial of femininity through various evasions of gendered identity such as masking male and female impersonations and the rupturing of realist modes
