

Venezuelan Land Reform

- Venezuelan land reform program has distributed 1.5 million hectares to 130,000 families – 11.5 hectares per family.
- Is this an efficient size? Can a family produce a surplus after full cost pricing?
- Sarkar has proposed a four phase system for developing cooperative agriculture using privately owned land.
- Objective: to allow private land ownership combined with cooperative production.

School of Public Administration,1991 Retrospectives on Public Finance contains original analyses by internationally recognized public finance scholars including Carl Sumner Shoup one of the discipline s most famous practitioners Shoup along with Richard Musgrave and his students pioneered the prescriptive or political economy school of public finance known for its hands on approach and its commitment to applying theory to real world problems Each contributor provides a retrospective on Shoup s various contributions to the field reviewing the literature and assessing its relevance to current problems in public finance theory and policy The essays highlight and analyze fiscal theory and public policy developments from the 1930s to the present in four areas the Shoup tax missions to Japan Venezuela and Liberia the tax mix the expenditure mix and macro public finance Contributors Lorraine Eden Carl S Shoup Malcolm Gillis Minoru Nakazato Charles E McLure Jr John Bossons Richard Goode William Vickery Wayne Thirsk John Graham Stanley Winer W Irwin Gillespie Melville L McMillan Cliff Walsh John G Head Enid Slack Edwin G West Richard M Bird Peggy B Musgrave Douglas A L Auld John B Burbidge Jack M Mintz John Sargent Richard A Musgrave      Reform of Latin American Banking Systems Joseph Jude Norton,Ernesto Aguirre Carrillo,2000-02-22 This book discusses current issues affecting the development of banking activities in the Latin American region together with various perspectives on possible reform It presents a comparative study of several Latin American banking systems and their supervisory bodies and examines the institutional structures put in place following the reforms of the last decade There is further discussion about the relationship that should exist between regulations and discretionary power when banks face difficulties These various subjects are explored through national case studies including Brazil Ecuador Venezuela Colombia Peru Mexico Bolivia Guatemala Argentina Costa Rica and by way of comparison the United States and Canada In addition the book covers general discussion of the wider international context There is comparative study of the structure of supervisory bodies in developed countries and the implications for developing countries and of how recent international trends in banking supervision have been reflected in the experiences of Latin American countries The authors examine the recent crises experienced by South East Asian financial systems and the ways in which they could impact Latin America The book also investigates the integration of banking markets at an international level and the harmonisation of different regulatory frameworks A study of the European Union experience provides a background for the discussion of harmonisation in the MERCOSUR countries Financial Sector Reform N. Mathieu,1998 Soon after its declaration of independence Lithuania launched a program of market based economic reforms that achieved remarkable results However a banking crisis erupted in January 1996 driven by a combination of ineffective bank supervision poor bank practices and deep rooted sectoral imbalances With financial support from the World Bank Lithuanian authorities embarked on a broad economic reform program with two immediate objectives the resolution of the banking system s operational and undercapitalization problems and a reduction in the most severe imbalances in the economy Volume I see ordering information below distills findings and conclusions and builds a policy action plan for fast stable growth Volume II contains a collection of twelve policy notes that provide the technical analysis behind that plan Also available Volume II Analytical Background ISBN 0 8213 4327 0 Stock no 14327

The Economics of Natural Resources in Latin America Osmel E. Manzano M.,Fernando Navajas,Andrew Powell,2017-11-15 Revenues from commodities are extremely important for Latin America and the Caribbean yet there is very little literature on the structure of these industries and on the various ways in which the state obtains commodity revenues This book aims to understand the trade off between the degree of taxation overall the profitability of the relevant industry and the amount of investment and subsequent production in the region as well as the relevance of institutions in the performance of the sector This volume focuses on economic efficiency where Latin America stands in terms of the current tax system for the extractive sector how policies have changed in this regard and how policies may be improved The Economics of Natural Resources in Latin America is timely since this new era of lower and volatile prices and possible reconfiguration of investment flows poses a challenge to natural resource tax systems in the world The argument of the book will be made by a collection of papers around the issue of tax efficiency in the region and concludes with chapters on institutions and the role of transparency This book shows that there are varieties of experiences in resource taxation and management of revenues in Latin America that could be used to shape policy interventions in other regions This variety is not only related to their diverse impact on welfare but also on the policy challenges faced by the countries in the region This volume is well suited for those who study and find interest in development economics political economy and public finance as well as policy
