historians offer explanations of what they have come to know But whatever is to be explained must first come to be known and the second part is concerned with the character of the cognitive activity which is the constitution of the historical past The point is that we must attend to the historical enterprise on its own terms and not try to make it fit the epistemology of natural science or of common sense The last section deals with Collingwood It is shown that his characteristic positions contribute to an account of historical knowing not historical explanation Catalogue and Circular (1878/79, 1884/85 "Circular") of the Illinois Industrial University (later "of the University of Illinois") University of Illinois (Urbana-Champaign campus),1925 Luther and Lutheranism Francis Clark,1972 Bulletin Stanford University,1929 University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.
