Poetics of Conduct Leela Prasad,2007 Leela Prasad s riveting book presents everyday stories on subjects such as deities ascetics cats and cooking along with stylized publicly delivered ethical discourse and shows that the study of oral narrative and performance is essential to ethical inquiry Prasad builds on more than a decade of her ethnographic research in the famous Hindu pilgrimage town of Sringeri Karnataka in southwestern India where for centuries a vibrant local culture has flourished alongside a tradition of monastic authority Oral narratives and the seeing and doing orientations that are part of everyday life compel the question How do individuals imagine the normative and negotiate and express it when normative sources are many and diverging Moral persuasiveness Prasad suggests is intimately tied to the aesthetics of narration and imagination plays a vital role in shaping how people create refute or relate to text moral authority and community Lived understandings of ethics keep notions of text and practice in flux and raise questions about the constitution of theory itself Prasad s innovative use of ethnography poetics philosophy of language and narrative and performance studies demonstrates how the moral self with a capacity for artistic expression is dynamic and gendered with a historical presence and a political agency

A Mystical Philosophy Donna J. Lazenby,2014-01-30 Revealing in an original and provocative study the mystical contents of the works of famous atheists Virginia Woolf and Iris Murdoch Donna Lazenby shows how these thinkers refusal to construe worldviews on available reductive models brought them to offer radically alternative pictures of life which maintain its mysteriousness and promote a mystical way of knowing A Mystical Philosophy contributes to the contemporary resurgence of interest in Spirituality but from an entirely new direction This book provides a warning against reductive scientific and philosophical models that impoverish our understanding of ourselves and the world and a powerful endorsement of ways of knowing that give art and a restored concept of contemplation their consummative place

Old Testament Story and Christian Ethics Robin A. Parry,2005-06-02 Christian use of the Old Testament has tended to focus on law and wisdom literature and to marginalize narrative materials This book restores story to its rightful place in Old Testament ethics and aims to set out parameters within which Christian ethical reappropriations of Old Testament narratives can take place The argument begins by examining recent philosophical studies of the role of story in the ethical life Special attention is paid to the work of Paul Ricoer Martha Nussbaum and Robert C Roberts Then the theological foundations are laid by demonstrating the importance of narrative for Old Testament ethics and of the biblical metanarrative for Christian interpretation Genesis 34 is examined as a detailed case study to exemplify the fruits of the method for Christian readers The study considers reception history feminist interpretation discourse analysis and canonical context to shed new light on the terrible story of the rape of Dinah

A Hermeneutical Approach to Religious Discourse in Mexican Narrative Catherine L. Caufield,2003 A Hermeneutical Approach to Religious Discourse in Mexican Narrative explores the complex phenomenon of religious discourse in contemporary Mexico as it appears in four works of Mexican literature Rosario Castellano s Oficio de tinieblas Elena Poniatowska s Hasta no verte Jes s m o Vicente Le ero s El evangelio de Lucas Gavil n and Carmen Boullosa s La Milagrosa Catherine L Caufield examines how it is possible to write lived experience as fiction as well as how it is possible that fiction can stimulate the reader to imagine the lived world differently

Waiting in Christian Traditions Joanne Robinson,2015-12-17 Christians wait for prayers to be answered for an afterlife in heaven for the Virgin Mary to appear and for God to speak They wait to be liberated from oppression to be saved or born again for Easter morning to dawn for healing for conversion and for baptism Waiting and the disappointment and hope that often accompany it are explained in terms that are at first glance remarkably invariant across Christian traditions what will happen will happen on God s time A study of sources from across Christian traditions shows that there is considerable complexity beneath this surface claim Understandings of free will and personal agency alongside shifts in institutional and theological commitments change the ways waiting is understood and valued Waiting is often considered a positive state to be endured as long as God wills and that fundamental understanding helps keep the promises at the heart of Christianity alive Scholars have long overlooked the problem and promise of waiting despite or perhaps because of its prevalence Indeed there are relatively few mystics few who have undergone sudden conversion and few who have attained saintly status Many however have waited and that problem remains prominent and its solutions remain influential in Christian traditions today

Understanding Prajñā John M. Thompson, 2008 Can enlightenment be attained through words Understanding Praj addresses this perennial issue in the study of mysticism through the work of Sengzhao 374 414 a Buddhist scholar monk whose essay on praj wisdom created a sensation in early medieval China Drawing on contemporary hermeneutic theory this book presents a close reading of Sengzhao s work placing it in proper context while highlighting his masterful techniques for conveying wisdom beyond ordinary language Understanding Praj includes translations of Sengzhao s essay and his correspondence with Liu Yimin a hermit scholar who yearned to grasp the Buddha s sage wisdom

Living Hermeneutics in Motion Gregory J. Laughery, 2002 Paul Ricoeur is one of the most prolific philosophers alive today Many studies have been done on Ricoeur s philosophy but very little on his theological trajectory and its connection to Biblical hermeneutics Living Hermeneutics in Motion brings to light the diverse ways in which Ricoeur s hermeneutic revolutions concerning a meaningful text can be useful specifically in the area of biblical interpretation Situated within the modern post modern interpretative tumult this book is interested in ascertaining if Ricoeur s richly sedimented and hermeneutically complex orientation can offer an alternative to modernist sharp boundaries and postmodern radical indeterminacy

Reflections in the Mind's Eye Brian T. Fitch, 1991 Subtitled Reference and its problematization in twentieth century French fiction A study of two types or levels of referentiality the world of the book and the world of the reader in the French novel between roughly 1930 and 1967 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Mosaic ,2003 The Construction of an Urban Past Harry Jansen, 2001-09 This book offers a new theoretical basis for urban studies and for historical studies in general by addressing one of the main problems that confronts contemporary historians How is it possible to process and synthesize an increasingly overwhelming amount of specialist research in the face of the theoretical deadlock caused by postmodernism How can we move beyond its claim that the past is unknowable Jansen s approach in which he claims there is a reality that is accessible to our cognitive capacities is based on Systems Theory which has already been applied so successfully in the fields of management and organization While focusing his attention on urban historiography Jansen argues that an integrative systems approach can be used in any field of historical enquiry to create a meaningful picture of the past He illustrates the importance of structuring data in this way by looking at the profound complexity of the urban environment This book is therefore important reading not only for urban historians and geographers but also for all social scientists interested in the future study of the European city
