E. Burton, 2002 Francis Poulenc arguably the most varied and accessible composer of the twentieth century first made his mark in the early 1920s as one of the loose association of young French composers known as Les Six writing piano chamber and ballet music His life though would be dominated by two immensely powerful influences his conversion of Catholicism and his life long homosexuality And though Poulenc did not allow his Catholicism to stand in the way of his homosexuality nor his homosexuality in the way of his Catholicism he undoubtedly suffered from the strain if not the contradiction between them Richard Burton's Outline examines for the first time this uneasy tension and its always precarious resolution through art as well as examining the fascinating overlap between gay and Catholic milieux in the Paris of the 1920s and beyond Provided by publisher Selected Orders of the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin Public Service Commission of Wisconsin,1989 A.U.M.L.A. ,1979 Gay Roots Winston Leyland,1991 Essays fiction and poetry originally published in Gay sunshine journal by Gay Sunshine Press West's Federal Supplement ,1991 Catalog of Copyright Entries.
