Seme The Founder Of The Anc:

The Man Who Founded the ANC Bongani Ngqulunga, 2017-06-19 In 1912 just over a year after returning from his studies at Columbia and Oxford the thirty year old Pixley ka Isaka Seme succeeded where others had failed in forming a political organisation that represented all black South Africans Seme also established a national newspaper became one of the pioneering black lawyers in South Africa bought land from white farmers for black settlement at the time when opposition to it was gaining momentum became an adviser and confidant to African royalty and was considered a leading visionary for black economic empowerment And yet when he became president general of the ANC in the 1930s he brought it to its knees through sheer ineptitude and an authoritarian style of leadership On more than one occasion he was found guilty for breaching the law which partly led to him being struck off the roll of attorneys This book discusses in detail Seme s extraordinary life tracing it back to his humble beginnings at Inanda Mission to his triumphs and disappointments across the continents in his public and private life When Seme died in 1951 he was bankrupt and his political standing had suffered greatly And yet he was praised as one of the greatest South Africans ever to have lived For all this he has largely been forgotten This biography brings the remarkable life of this extraordinary South Africa back to public consciousness Seme Richard Rive, Tim Couzens, 1992 The Future We Chose Busani Ngcaweni, 2014-01-17 This book foregrounds emerging and different perspectives on the centenary of the ANC which was celebrated in February 2012 Differing in tenor methodology and style we present nineteen chapters that tackle various epochs and events in the making of the centenary of the oldest political organisation in Africa The book offers new angles to our understanding of what sustained the ANC over one hundred years in spite of all the internal and external contradictions There is arguably a view that part of what distinguishes the ANC from other revolutionary movements in the continent is that from the turn of the twentieth century its founders prioritised national unity across tribal ethnic linguistic religious gender and racial identities This ideal of national unity informed their responses to the formation of the Union of South Africa in 1910 and the declaration of the South African Republic in 1961 In principle the leadership was opposed not to these manifestations of concrete nation state formation but to the practice of excluding the majority of South African citizens according to racial markers As a contribution to the historiography of the ANC and that of South Africa which it was established to liberate the book tackles the following critical questions what traits in the ANC s genetic code have kept it alive for one hundred years Is the ANC on course to meeting its historical mission of building an equitable nonracial non sexist and socially democratic society as articulated in the Africans Claims the Freedom Charter and the Strategy and Tactics documents Finally would the ANC continue to retain relevance for a bicentenary especially as it now contends with new internal and external contradictions in an increasingly unequally society and unipolar world order This new hypothetical architecture hopefully will be employed by many others engaged in the study of the rise and fall of political organisations Alfred B. Xuma Steven Gish, 2000 A thorough examination of Alfred B Xuma s life and times Gish's study not only broadens our understanding of African nationalism at a crucial period but also sheds light on white liberalism Pan Africanism and the world of the educated African elite

Kallen, 2010-08-01 The Defiance Campaign marked a new chapter in the struggle going to prison became a badge of honor among Africans Nelson Mandela 1952 On June 26 1952 twenty five men and five women entered the waiting room of a railway station in Port Elizabeth South Africa If they had been white people of European descent they would have gone unnoticed But they were black South Africans who were violating the waiting room's Europeans Only sign as part of the Campaign of Defiance against Unjust Laws Instituted by the African National Congress ANC the campaign aimed to peacefully defy a series of laws known as apartheid a system of legal racial segregation Across the country similar protests took place and more than 250 resisters went to jail that day The ANC's strategy was to fill the jails to overflowing and cause the police and judicial branches of government to break down In July fifteen hundred men and women took part in the campaign in August more than two thousand went to jail The Defiance Campaign eventually triumphed but not before the tragedy of bloodshed violence and death among three generations of South Africans In this riveting story of the long struggle against apartheid we'll explore the reasons why thousands were willing to die in the fight for civil rights And we'll witness how their courageous efforts led to the day in 1994 when Nelson Mandela stood before thousands of free South Africans as the nation's first black president
