Sense Of Learning:

Feelings and Learning Association for Childhood Education International, 1965      Constructing a Paradigm for Children's Contextualized Learning Li Jilin, 2017-08-22 This book focuses on summarizing four elements from the classic Chinese literary theory truth beauty emotion and imagination Based on the latest findings from learning sciences and brain science it elaborates on the reasons for creating contexts in language teaching It also shows how the aesthetical theories can be used to nurture contextualized instruction and presents six major approaches for creating contexts creating contexts with real objects representing contexts with pictures evoking contexts with music experiencing contexts with acting unfolding contexts with real life and describing contexts with languages The author is a practitioner with over 30 years of practical research experience and all their studies are discussed in this book      A Handbook of Reflective and Experiential Learning Jennifer A. Moon, 2013-04-15 Reflective and experiential learning are now common currency in education and training and are recognized as important tools This handbook acts as an essential guide to understanding and using these techniques in educational and training contexts      Landscapes of Learning Maxine Greene, 1978 Special 2018 Edition From the new Introduction by Janet L Miller Teachers College Columbia University Maxine Greene never claimed to be a visionary thinker But forty years later her trepidations detailed throughout 1978 s Landscapes of Learning now appear unnervingly prescient Witness and treasure Landscapes as evidence of her matchless abilities to inspire myriad educators and students worldwide I would suggest that there must always be a place in teacher education for foundations people whose fundamental concern is with opening new perspectives on the many faces of the human world Maxine Greene The essays in this volume demonstrate clearly that Maxine Greene is herself an example of the kind of foundations specialist she hopes to see someone who can stimulate inform and bring new insights to teachers students curriculum planners administrators policymakers indeed all those concerned with education in its broadest sense These essays a number of them based on lectures presented to various professional organizations reveals her dedication to learning and teaching as it reveals her belief in the potential of each individual person A philosopher whose orientation is largely existential and phenomenological she seeks to demystify aspects of today s technological society to question taken for granted notions of social justice and equality and to elucidate conflicts between youth and age the poor and the middle class minorities and Whites male and female As a humanist she calls for self reflectiveness wide awakesness and personal transformation within the context of each person s own lived world each one s particular landscape of work experience and aspiration Recognizing the multiple realities that compose experience the many landscapes against which sense making proceeds the essays are grouped in four sections intellectual and moral components of emancipatory education social issues and their implications for approaches to pedagogy artistic aesthetic considerations in the making of curriculum and the cultural significance of women s predicaments today All are richly illuminated by examples all are written with grace and passion all will help readers achieve greater self understanding and critical consciousness This is a significant book Phi Delta Kappan Maxine Greene forces us to consider what we can do even in a limited way and to begin to understand where we have failed Cross Currents Making Sense of Learning Norman Reid, Asma Amanat Ali, 2020-08-26 This textbook brings together findings from global research on teaching and learning with an emphasis on secondary and higher education The book is unique in that the content is selected in an original way and its presentation reflects the most recent research evidence related to understanding The book covers and presents themes that are based tightly on worldwide research evidence scrupulously avoiding opinion or any dependence on the personal experience of the authors The book starts by reflecting on educational research itself The four chapters that follow relate the story of the research that shows how all humans learn and the variations within that framework These chapters offer a tight framework that underpins much of the rest of the text The next four chapters look at the way school curricula are organised and how the performance of learners can be assessed They summarise the research evidence related to thinking skills and consider the importance of practical teaching This is followed by two chapters that draw from the extensive social psychology research on attitude development as it applies in education and then by two chapters that summarise the research related to major issues of controversy the performativity agenda and the issue of quality One chapter looks at the place of statistics in education The next two chapters look at the evidence that can support or undermine many typical education beliefs or myths and mirages Finally the last chapter brings it all together and looks into the future pointing to some areas where future research is likely to be helpful based on current knowledge The Senses of Scripture Yael Avrahami, 2012-06-15 The book discusses the experience and understanding of the senses in the culture represented in the Hebrew Bible Perspectives on Learning D. C. Phillips, Jonas F. Soltis, 2015-04-18 Rather than simply outlining the classical and modern theories of learning this widely adopted text brings the material to life through case studies that engage students in debates about what really happens in classrooms Students are encouraged to test the strengths and weaknesses of each theory so that ultimately they will learn to formulate their own philosophies of teaching and learning The new Fifth Edition of Perspectives on Learning features A discussion of common sense and learning theories A new chapter on Transfer of Learning Consideration of recent developments in brain science A thoroughly updated list of Recommendations for Further Reading Perspectives on Learning is one of the five books in the highly regarded Teachers College Press THINKING ABOUT EDUCATION SERIES now in its Fifth Edition All of the books in this series are designed to help pre and in service teachers bridge the gap between theory and practice The Canada Porcupine: a Study of the Learning Process Leroy Walter Sackett, 1913 The Century Dictionary, 1889 Handbook of Research on Educational Communications and Technology David H.
