South Florida Folklife ,1994-01-01 Native Americans Today Arlene Hirschfelder,Yvonne Beamer,2000-01-15 Literature and educational books about Native Americans frequently present stereotypical images or depict the people as they existed hundreds of years ago Seeking to dispel misrepresentations this book examines Native American culture as it exists today as well as its historical background Reproducible activities biographies of real people and accurate background information help educators present a realistic and diverse picture of Native Americans in the twentieth century With each lesson the authors include a suggested grade level materials list objectives readings activities enrichment extensions and a list of resources for further study Chapters cover ground rules homes and environment growing up and growing old a day in the life communications arts economics and socio political struggles Appendixes contain oral history guidelines global information sources lists of Native media and related Web sites

Special Patchwork ,1989 Gives instructions and patterns for creating various types of patchwork applique and trapunto Julia Foster's Patchwork Julia Foster,1985 Dimensions of Native America Jehanne Teilhet-Fisk,Robin Franklin Nigh,1998 From the introduction The collision and reconciliation of meanings and interpretations found in the arts of and by Native Americans is the theme that dominates Dimensions of Native America the Contact Zone Arts change through cultural drift or through a form of acculturation or contact with a foreign culture This exhibition focuses on the Native American arts that changed as a result of contact with Euroamericans through acculturation or assimilation At the same time Euroamerican art also changed through contact with Native American cultures The exhibition is concerned with those acculturated art forms made by both Native Americans and Euroamericans that deliberately converge with and often appropriate each other s cultural properties New concepts of technology in making art new media new subject matter new styles and new or different canons of aesthetics that were absent in a pre contact situation for the Native and non Native are now integrated into the visual and performing arts By focusing on the acculturated arts this exhibition will provide our multi cultural community with a framework for better understanding and appreciating how these arts express fertile new ideas that are integrated into the matrix of tribe culture or society A further objective is to question the accuracy and intentions of the Western artists particularly from the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries who appropriated cultural property from the different American Indian tribes making visual constructions of them in alignment with the prevailing objectives of the dominant culture at that time These arts can then be compared with the visual constructions made by contemporary North American Indian and non Indian artists of the late twentieth century whose internationally recognized works address in avant garde terms what it means to construct ethnic identities and cultural experiences that can and have led to misrepresentations of cultural truths and stereotypes This exhibition is the effort of a group of enthusiastic undergraduates and graduates who took in the spring of 1996 my art history course on the arts and cultures of the Southwest the Pueblo and Navajo Din peoples Since Florida State University has identified with and valorized the achievements of the Florida Seminole Tribe the group felt it fitting for FSU students to organize and develop a campus exhibition addressing aspects of past and present American Indian art and culture Working under extraordinary time constraints and limited funding these six undergraduates and eleven graduates never wavered in their commitment to this project All of the students felt the need to see the arts and visit the cultural areas they were writing about

American Indian Art Magazine ,1983 Sovereignty and Development Ricardo Guadalupe Huerta,2009 Guy LaBree Carol Mahler,2010 Guy LaBree s connection to the Seminole Tribe of Florida began when he was an elementary school student in the 1940s living near the Dania now Hollywood reservation in Florida However it wasn t until the 1970s that this relationship grew into a creative partnership LaBree was encouraged by the Seminoles to produce paintings depicting important teachings about their culture customs history and legend as a way of passing on traditional knowledge to younger generations To do this he was given unprecedented access to privileged information never before shared with outsiders
