

The bride inscribed with henna soon discovers,
That nature has a special pen for mothers,
Up-down, criss-cross, she doodles fast and free,
Anointing every warrior lovingly.
Bold lightning stripes are liberally applied,
To celebrate the magic deep inside,
Forever etched, as much as they may fade,
They mark the wondrous place where life is made.
In time, the mother learns to love her scribble -
The tattoo left by love upon her middle.
