

A photograph of two monks in a stone courtyard. One monk on the left is wearing a grey habit and is sweeping the ground with a broom. The other monk on the right is wearing a black habit and is standing with his back to the camera, looking towards a green door. The building is made of light-colored stone blocks. There is a window with a metal grate on the left and a green door with two crosses on it on the right. The text is overlaid on the image.
