Power Encounter in Spiritual Warfare Charles H. Kraft, 2017-05-18 Acceptance of Christianity in Southern Polynesia during the eighteenth century proceeded rapidly without missionary activity This fact attracted the attention of Alan Tippett who served for twenty years as an Australian missionary to the Fiji Islands What he found was that the key to their conversion lay in the fact that without missionary presence the south sea islanders responded to demonstrations of what Tippett learned to call power encounters These were contests some staged some not staged in which there was a power encounter between the true God and the gods of the islanders in which the traditional gods were defeated Kraft here discusses the fact that this power principle applies much more widely

Power Evangelism John Wimber, Kevin Springer, 2009-05-01 The message of Power Evangelism has been embraced around the world and the book that started it all has become a classic with more than one million sold In 2006 Christianity Today named it one of the 50 most significant Christian books to be published in the last 50 years This revised and updated edition describes the releasing of God's power through signs and wonders to refresh renew heal and equip His people Drawing from the teaching of the New Testament and with illustrations from his own experience Vineyard leader John Wimber persuades the reader to yield control of our lives to the Holy Spirit Though Wimber died in 1997 his teaching continues to spread throughout the Vineyard movement through the broader renewal movement and to Christians across the globe even those who do not consider themselves Charismatic Co author Kevin Springer also a Vineyard pastor has found that in the years since its first publication Power Evangelism has only grown and the results continue to be explosive This edition includes a chapter by chapter study guide and reflects changes Springer and other power evangelism practitioners have made in presentation not in content for readers in the new millennium Theology and Pentecostal Experiences* John Daniel L. Andersen,2026-04-16 Over the past century the Pentecostal and Charismatic movements have transformed the global Christian landscape with their emphasis on personal encounters with God In this rigorous work Andersen explains how Pentecostal experiences can also serve as a genuine source for Christian theology Theology tends to draw upon traditional sources those of Scripture tradition and reason Andersen brilliantly highlights how all these sources relate to the religious experiences and how they all influence each other reciprocally in systematic theology Through developing key criteria of how to evaluate these experiences this book examines in detail what positive role Christian affections play in theological work and reflection processes Highlighting the interplay between emotions and beliefs the author combines Pentecostal theology of Christian affections with neuroscience and the somatic marker hypothesis Finally the book makes a cumulative case for the reliability of Pentecostal experiences of God It synthesises arguments from the philosophy of religion to suggest a nuanced proposal of their distinct theological contribution as manifestation beliefs that represent relational and personal knowledge of God      American Anthropologist ,1922
