argument for the consonance between science and religion including contingency and laws of nature field theories and space time and divine action Translations of Pannenberg s theory of theology as a rational hypothetical science including his discussions with leading British and American scholars such as A N Whitehead John Cobb and Langdon Gilkey Previously unpublished articles on the problems between science and theology in the course of modern history explaining why chance may be more important for theology than design Translations of seminal articles that articulate Pannenberg s understanding of the role of religion in human nature One of the few theological articles on aggression as a psychological and social phenomenon With this collection the essays of this important contemporary theologian and his illuminating views are presented in one convenient volume

Operators and Nucleus Pieter A. M. Seuren,2010-06-03 Dr Seuren s study deals with the problem of presenting an adequate model of grammatical description The model he proposes conforms in its main outlines to the transformational generative grammar established by Chomsky but differs in important respects These mainly affect that part of Chomsky s syntactic component known as the base which generates basic or deep structures In the model of the base proposed here two main constituents are distinguished for every deep structure representation of a sentence vis a vis the operators and the nucleus The deep structure of a sentence is thus seen to be very similar to the logical structure of a proposition The arguments given in support of this analysis are based on mainly on considerations of simplicity and semantic adequacy

The Knowledge Medium Gary A. Berg,2003-01-01 This timely new publication examines the notion of computer as medium and what such an idea might mean for education The Knowledge Medium Designing Effective Computer Based Educational Learning Environments suggests that the understanding of computers as a medium may be a key to re envisioning educational technology Because the subject is interdisciplinary combining science with the humanities the theoretical discussion draws from a broad range of disciplines psychology educational theory film criticism and computer science
