

SENT TO COVENTRY.

How many persons use the phrase "sent to Coventry," yet how few know its origin or what it really meant. The following extract from a letter by Mr Wilmot Dixon to the Daily News, however, throws light on the subject:—"The city of Coventry actually did in the last century 'Boycott' the army. The redcoats were tabooed from all respectable society in Coventry, the civilians kept aloof from the military as though the latter had been infected with the plague. Any lady seen speaking to an officer was immediately 'cut' by all her acquaintances. So dull and desolate did barrack life at Coventry consequently become, that 'to be sent to Coventry' passed into a mess room proverb for the most execrable exile to which it was possible to sentence a soldier. From the mess room the expression has been incorporated into common social phraseology, but perhaps few who use it are aware of its true origin. The reaction, however, has been complete, and the Coventry society would, I fancy, sorely miss its cavalry regiment now."
