SSC. United States. Ship Structure Committee,1996 Revisiting the Assessment of Second Language Abilities: From Theory to Practice Sahbi Hidri,2018-01-12 This book presents an overview of revisiting the assessment of language abilities It also showcases how the measurement of such constructs can result in negative or positive washback and how outcomes might be conducive to repercussions that decide on the future of many stakeholders The 23 chapters were selected among tens of chapters received from different contexts that addressed the issue of revisiting the assessment of language abilities such as Tunisia Ukraine Algeria Russia KSA Sudan Egypt Canada Kurdistan UK USA Iran Turkey etc These contexts have highlighted the necessity to revisit the different constructs which should be assessed with a clear and straightforward foundation on students learning objectives and their actual language ability To do so most of the chapters present hands on use of relevant statistical tests that might serve in revisiting the construct definition both theoretically and operationally Perhaps the sole and intricate question that the authors of these contributions ask is what it means to revisit the assessment of the construct of individualized language ability and how In addition the book accentuates the momentousness and significance of reflecting on test fairness and validation as the mainspring and backbone for democratization of assessment This book appeals to a broad readership such as English Language Teaching ELT practitioners language teachers students testing organizations policy makers test designers writers of test specifications testing experts researchers program evaluators especially in the Middle East and North Africa MENA as well as other international contexts Annual Report Saint Louis (Mo.). Nguyen,2002-06-08 The Fuller School is one of the six elementary schools in Gloucester Massachusetts a small urban community known for shipbuilding and fishing Fuller students come from a wide range of socioeconomic backgrounds from public housing facilities to affluent families and a variety of ethnic groups including Italian Hispanic and Vietnamese With its diverse population the Fuller School represented an excellent environment to test the use of Multiple Intelligences MI as a foundation for its curriculum This study aimed to examine one of the ten objectives of the FIRST Schools and Teacher Program Grant To improve student achievement on standardized tests by using multiple intelligences instruction The results of the California Achievement Test 5 CAT 5 given at grade 5 tended to show no differences between students in the MI and the traditional school program Although no association between CAT 5 outcomes and the MI treatment were found two report card outcomes at the sixth grade level Math and Physical Education and an interaction of Program type with Home language on Music were found to be significant By and large the magnitude of these differences was not large enough to conclude that the MI treatment was effective in producing larger standardized test scores than students in the non MI program Yet considering that the MI program emphasizes different kinds of activities and more diverse ways of learning and provides an alternative to the traditional classroom this result of no differences between programs can be thought of a success for the MI community Participants in the MI program performed just as well as those who had been in the traditional program This case study is unusual because public schools rarely assigned their students randomly to experimental programs through a lottery process Although students were randomly assigned to MI and traditional classrooms accounting for several additional demographic variables in the students personal and family background helped to characterize the differences in student performance in language mathematics social studies science arts physical education and music Educators should find the results encouraging even with no differences in test scores and grades because this indicates that MI approaches are competitive with traditional ones These findings shed new light on the application of MI and given the growth in its use provides a much needed comparison for those interested in implementing it as one component of educational reform Report ,1891 Bulletin ,1928
