

Questions to guide assessment decisions	How I might answer these questions at the beginning of the school year
What do I need to do?	Obtain an achievement baseline so I can monitor students' progress and assess their growth at the end of the year.
What skills am I trying to assess?	I am trying to assess reading comprehension.
When can I administer the assessment?	I will gather information in the fall and compare the results with assessments given at other times throughout the year.
How much time do I have?	I wish to accomplish this with my whole class during a single class period.
What information will the assessment provide?	I hope to obtain a baseline for growth and determine if students will need additional supports to prepare them for end-of-year assessments.
