Revisiting Racialized Voice David G Holmes, 2007-09-03 Revisiting Racialized Voice African American Ethos in Language and Literature argues that past misconceptions about black identity and voice codified from the 1870s through the 1920s inform contemporary assumptions about African American authorship and ethos Tracing elements of racial consciousness in the works of Frederick Douglass Charles Chesnutt W E B DuBois Zora Neale Hurston and others David G Holmes urges a revisiting of narratives from this period to strengthen and advance notions about racialized writing and to shape contemporary composition pedagogies Pointing to the intersection of African American identity literature and rhetoric Revisiting Racialized Voice begins to construct rhetorically workable yet ideologically flexible definitions of black voice Holmes maintains that political pressure to embrace color blindness endangers scholars ability to uncover links between racialized discourses of the past and those of the present and he calls instead for a reassessment of the material realities and theoretical assumptions race represents and with which it has been associated School Publication Los Angeles City School District,1927 OE [publication] , The Great Alaskan Reading Race Sue Sherif,William Berry,Alaska State Library,Fairbanks North Star Borough (Alaska).
