Shakespeare's Scribe Gary L. Blackwood, 2002-01-01 Danger action and mystery swirl around our scrappy young hero Widge as he returns to center stage in this book The plague has shut down the Globe Theatre forcing the troupe to take to the road Excitement follows Widge at every crossroads He faces a secret from his past a sly new apprentice threatens to steal his roles and the road back to London is treacherous But there is a place for Widge in the troupe right next to Shakespeare himself who needs Widge to assist him with a new play commissioned by the queen Readers who relished Widge's heroics in Gary Blackwood's first novel about Shakespeare's players will be entranced yet again by a tapestry of drama history and nonstop high jinks All's well that ends well in this new Elizabethan escapade
