Multiple Methods In Program Evaluation:

Multiple Methods in Program Evaluation Melvin M. Mark, R. Lance Shotland, 1987 The Mixed Methods Reader
Vicki L. Plano Clark, John W. Creswell, 2008 In light of the dispersed nature of the mixed methods literature the editors have organized a collection of key discussions and examples of mixed methods research studies in one easy to access location This integrative collection draws from the international literature appearing across diverse research disciplines over the past thirty years Mixed Methods in Social Inquiry Jennifer C. Greene, 2007-10-26 This is an excellent addition to the literature of integrated methodology The author has skillfully integrated diverse ways of thinking about mixed methods into a comprehensive and meaningful framework By providing detailed examples she makes it easy for both the students and the practitioners to understand the intricate details and complexities of doing mixed methods research On the other hand by comparing contrasting and bridging multiple perspectives about mixed methods she has made this book very relevant and useful to seasoned scholars of mixed methodology Abbas Tashakkori Frost Professor and coordinator educational research and evaluation methodology Department of Educational and Psychological Studies Florida International University founding coeditor Journal of Mixed Methods Research Instructional Development Paradigms Charles R. Dills, A. J. Romiszowski, 1997 An encyclopedic examination of competing paradigms in the areas of instructional design and development at all levels and in a variety of environments The 46 treatments feature the analysis of experienced scholars and sometimes the authors of the particular theories under discussion which include topics in instructional development in its philosophical mode constructivism postmodernism systems approach as a cultural vantage point and in theory and application reviewing the effects of technology on class design the influences of semiotics the strategic advantages of constructivist instruction versus linear designs and modeling for applying design strategies from constructivism and cognitive theory to individualizing instruction with adult learners Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Media Education Assessment Handbook William G. Christ, 2020-07-24 Assessing media education is a formidable task because both assessment and media education are complex and controversial concepts Assessment which can take place at the individual student class sequence program department or unit and university levels is questioned in terms of reliability validity relevance and cost Media education which has been challenged at a number of schools finds faculty and administrators in the midst of soul searching about how to clearly articulate its missions and purposes to a broader audience Departments are under increasing national state and institutional pressure to get assessment procedures carried out quickly but there is an obvious danger in rushing to implement assessment strategies before establishing what is essential in media education In communication education in general the what of assessment is often discussed in terms of skills attitudes affect values and knowledge People assess students to determine what they know think feel value and can do Here it is suggested that one of the places to start defining what students should learn from their media education is by identifying outcomes

Outcomes can be assessed in a variety of ways but first they need to be developed and clearly articulated

Evaluation Models D.L. Stufflebeam, George F. Madaus, T. Kellaghan, 2005-12-19 This is an up to date revision of the classic text first published in 1983 It includes a historical perspective on the growth of evaluation theory and practice and two comparative analyses of the various alternative perspectives on evaluation It also includes articles representing the major schools of thought about evaluation written by the leaders who have developed these schools and models The final section describes and discusses the Standards for Program Evaluation and the reformation of program evaluation

New Directions for Program Evaluation, 1989

Program Evaluation Margaret E. Gredler, 1996 May be used by education professionals and decision makers who are responsible for implementing new programs and innovations in education Presents a practical real world framework for education program evaluation that addresses current methods important decisions planning tasks and ethical issues that face the evaluator Presents the major steps of planning and conducting an evaluation sequentially through the book Contains an entire chapter containing the latest information on qualitative inquiry and its applications to evaluation Includes comprehensive individual chapters on performance and portfolio assessment

Encyclopedia of Primary Prevention and Health Promotion Thomas P. Gullotta, Martin Bloom, 2003-01-31 Foundational topics such as history ethics and principles of primary prevention as well as specific issues such as consultation political issues and financing The second section addresses such topics as abuse depression eating disorders HIV AIDS injuries and religion and spirituality often dividing such topics into separate entries addressing childhood adolescence and adulthood

An Evaluation of Two Methods of Relating Environmental Interpretation to Urban Residents of Detroit, Michigan Janet Marie Fritschen, 1980

Program Evaluation Emil J. Posavac, Raymond G. Carey, 2007 Describes programme evaluation as an activity that organisations do to find out how well human services serve people in need Demonstrates that evaluations are performed for a variety of reasons and when conducted cooperatively can serve to improve programs and thus quality of life Uses case studies to illustrate different uses of program evaluations

Evaluation Country Development Policies and Programs Robert Picciotto, Ray C. Rist, 1995-10-02 This issue of New Directions for Evaluation deals with the special evaluation problems of programs in the developing world Over the last two decades the framework of economic and social development policy and practice has been transformed This is due in part to evaluation lessons which have helped to shape the new development priorities toward sustainability participation and insitutional development In turn evaluation must deal with the consequences of a more demanding agenda a more fractured development constituency and a vastly more complex set of analytical questions This publication presents the views of development policy makers practitioners and evaluators on the kinds of adjustments needed in the approaches instruments and processes used by development evaluators The chapters were discussed in draft form at a Conference on Evaluation and Development hosted by the world Bank in Washington D C in December 1994 The resulting collection offers a consistent framework for further debate and proposes new emphases for development evaluation This is the 67th issue in the journal series New Directions for Evaluation For more information on the series please see the Journals and Periodicals page
