Evans, 2025-01-21 A Guide to Biblical Commentaries and Reference Works 11th Edition by John F Evans summarizes and briefly analyzes all recent and many older commentaries on each book of the Bible giving insightful comments on the approach of each commentary and its usefulness for biblical interpretation The easy to use book provides analysis in canonical order and includes helpful appendices for compiling a personal research library A Guide to Biblical Commentaries and Reference Works 11th Edition is a key reference tool for any student of the Bible pastors laity and scholars alike Faith Reads David Rainey, 2008-07-30 At last a resource for librarians who wish to build or develop their nonfiction collection and use it to better serve the needs of adult Christian readers Covering the three major branches of Christianity Roman Catholic Protestant and Orthodox the author organizes more than 600 titles into subject categories ranging from biography the arts and education to theology devotion and spiritual warfare Award winning classics are noted Introductory narrative frames the literature and helps librarians better understand Christian literature and learn how to establish selection criteria for building a Christian nonfiction collection Elements of Biblical Exegesis Michael J. Gorman, 2020-11-03 World renowned scholar Michael Gorman presents a straightforward approach to the complex task of biblical exegesis This third edition of Gorman s widely used and trusted textbook over 60 000 copies sold has been thoroughly updated and revised to reflect developments in the academy and the classroom over the past decade The new edition explains recent developments in theological interpretation and explores missional and non Western readings of the biblical text Adaptable for students in various settings it includes clear explanations practical hints suggested exercises and sample papers George Buttrick's Guide to Preaching the Gospel Charles N. Davidson JR., George A.

Buttrick,2020-08-18 Does the preacher now impress us as a legate of the skies To many he is a pathetic figure an anachronism a stage joke an inoffensive little person jostled by the crowd and wearing the expression of a startled rabbit With one hand he holds a circular hat on a bewildered head and with the other desperately clutches an umbrella The crowd pushes him from the sidewalk the traffic shoots him back into the crowd Some curse him a few laugh most are unaware of his existence George Buttrick Lyman Beecher Lectures 1931 Whether we need preaching has been asked for hundreds of years long before an age of media saturation from streaming 24 hour news entertainment politics and sports This question hounded George Buttrick one of the most profound preachers of the twentieth century and often compared with Billy Graham Buttrick offers a compelling answer to the question but his answer remained hidden for 40 years until now In George Buttrick s Guide to Preaching the Gospel we learn why the world needs competent preachers what the preacher must preach about and how the preacher goes about creating the sermon with daily discipline and several practiced skills including research charting outlining writing and performance These writings have never been published before and were found by his grandchildren after his death A brief biography of Buttrick introduces this master orator and professor to readers who do not know his work Light from the Gentiles: Hellenistic Philosophy and Early Christianity Abraham J.

Malherbe,2013-10-10 Rather than viewing the Graeco Roman world as the background against which early Christian texts should be read Abraham J Malherbe saw the ancient Mediterranean world as a rich ecology of diverse intellectual traditions that interacted within specific social contexts These essays spanning over fifty years illustrate Malherbe s appreciation of the complexities of this ecology and what is required to explore philological and conceptual connections between early Christian writers especially Paul and Athenagoras and their literary counterparts who participated in the religious and philosophical discourse of the wider culture Malherbe s essays laid the groundwork for his magisterial commentary on the Thessalonian correspondence and launched the contemporary study of Hellenistic moral philosophy and early Christianity The Use of PAS in the New Testament J. William Johnston,2004 This book examines in detail the use of the pronominal adjective all each every in the Greek New Testament focusing on how syntactical patterns and the semantic value of words or phrases it modifies are factors determining its sense and scope These findings are applied to the interpretation of several debated passages in the New Testament Hebrews, the General Letters, and Revelation Charles B. Puskas,2016-10-28 Most New Testament NT introductions because of page limitations and other reasons tend to minimize their treatment of the last nine books of the Christian Bible from Hebrews to Revelation The focus in these introductions is often on the four Gospels and the Letters of Paul As important as these books are one should not neglect with only a brief survey the treatment of Hebrews the General Letters and the book of Revelation The title given later to the collection Catholic Epistles or General Letters is a reminder of its general appeal to the whole church despite its slow canonical recognition and authorship issues Nevertheless these writings from Hebrews to Revelation continue to capture our attention and ignite our imagination My purpose for this book is to supplement my NT introduction and others like it with a focus on specific questions about each book from Hebrews to Revelation When and why was each book written By whom and to whom was each book written What are some special features of each book How soon or late was each book included in the NT collection Answers to many of these questions are tentative The assured results of scholarship are in continual need of reevaluation Since the 1980s a host of diverse studies have emerged and I have endeavored to include them when they are relevant to the discussion

Using Theological Books and Libraries Ella Virginia Aldrich, Thomas Edward Camp, 1963 The Reader's Guide to the Best Evangelical Books Mark Lau Branson, 1982 Union Catalog of the Graduate Theological Union Graduate Theological Union.
