Oxcart Man:

Ox-Cart Man Donald Hall, 1983-10-27 Winner of the Caldecott Medal Thus begins a lyrical journey through the days and weeks the months and the changing seasons in the life of one New Englander and his family The oxcart man packs his goods the wool from his sheep the shawl his wife made the mittens his daughter knitted and the linen they wove He packs the birch brooms his son carved and even a bag of goose feathers from the barnyard geese He travels over hills through valleys by streams past farms and villages At Portsmouth Market he sells his goods one by one even his beloved ox Then with his pockets full of coins he wanders through the market buying provisions for his family and returns to his home And the cycle begins again Like a pastoral symphony translated into picture book format the stunning combination of text and illustrations recreates the mood of 19 century rural New England The Horn Book Ox-cart Man. Big Book Teaching Guide Hall, Donald, Hancock, Pat, 1989 Ox-Cart Man Study Guide 106, 2008-03-07 The 1980 Caldecott Medal winner This simple rhythmic story traces a year in the life of a New England farm family in the 1800 s He fills his cart with the goods his family has produced throughout the year and takes them to market After selling everything including the cart and ox he buys a few items and walks home The values of hard work patience cooperation family and contentment are woven throughout the story Setting New Hampshire 1832 Guide 21 pages 8 sections Ox-cart Man by Donald Hall Jean Jamieson, 1999 This beautifully illustrated children s book recreates the mood of 19th century rural New England It begins in October when a farmer and his family fill it up their ox cart with everything they made or grew all year long that was left over a bag of wool a shawl and mittens candles linen a broom potatoes apples maple sugar etc He walked the ox and cart until he reached a market where he sold everything including his cart and ox Then the man bought things that his family needed such as an iron kettle embroidery needle knife for wood carving and wintergreen peppermint candies The story continues through the winter and spring as the family makes and grows the same items that they will again sell to buy things that they need Winner of The Caldecott Medal The Important Books Joseph Stanton, 2005-08-18 The Important Books takes a look at some of the most significant and talked about authors illustrators and titles in the genre including Maurice Sendak Margaret Wise Brown William Joyce and Chris Van Allsburg While focusing on those books that are distinguished by some degree of originality in both word and image the author points out that the importance of picture books is not primarily pedagogical they are not intended to serve as dumbed down versions of young adult or adult novels and the audience for these great books is not solely children Because the children s picture book is designed to provide the context for an intimate transaction involving the imaginations of both parent and child there is a social value to the form that lends a special poignancy to the pleasure it provides Ox-cart Man [by] Donald Hall Garrett Christopher, 1997 Word study story questions picture questions reproducibles and activities for students to tie in with the story Ox cart man by Donald Hall Caldecott Connections to Social Studies Shan Glandon, 2000-09-15 Take advantage of the appeal and power of Caldecott award literature to extend
