Perceptions of Christianity Among South Asian Muslims in America, Paul S. Biswas, 2020-07-13. This book explores and articulates perceptions of Christianity among South Asian Muslims in America. The South Asian Muslim population in America includes many immigrants and their families. This book analyzes the perceptions of Christianity held by South Asian Muslims in three areas: theological, sociocultural, and ethical/moral. This book addresses both positive and negative perceptions of Christianity, although it mainly focuses on the misperceptions that give rise to conflicting views between Muslim and Christian. The primary goal of this book is to consider how flawed perceptions hinder the effective communication of the Christian gospel in efforts to witness to Muslims in America. This book further explores the sociocultural and ethnic differences among South Asian Muslims and the ways in which their perceptions of Christianity differ. More specifically, this book identifies the factors most likely to influence both positive and negative perceptions of Christianity among South Asian Muslims in America. This book also briefly explores the multi-faceted historical background of Islam in South Asia and the impact Islam has had on the assumptions and perceptions of Christianity of South Asian people in general and specifically on the thinking and perceptions of South Asian Muslims in America. This book includes qualitative research using an ethnographic case study approach. Data presented in this book are collected from two different sources: scholarly literature related to the focal group and structured interviews with a representative sample of South Asian Muslims in America. The anticipated result is to provide useful information and insights so Christian practitioners can develop useful tools for building harmonious relationships with South Asian Muslims in America and effectively communicating the gospel to them.

Samuel Helfont,2009 This work analyzes how the conditions of modernity have shaped the contemporary views of the prominent Islamic thinker Yusuf al Qaradawi At the outset it lays the foundation for a discussion of modernity by reviewing the ideas of prominent philosophers such as Kant Hegel as well as of contemporary social scientists such as Habermas Based on their understanding of modernity this work shows how increased education mass communication and migration have changed the way Muslims perceive their religion It also shows how al Qaradawi s thinking reflects this Al Qaradawi is put into historical perspective through a review of modernity in the Islamic world over the last 200 years This is followed by an examination of his views on a number of pertinent issues including science massmedia jihad international relations democracy and feminism The findings are based on hundreds of fatwas sermons and interviews in the Arab media and on relevant secondary sources both in English and Arabic As of yet no in depth work of this length has been published on al Qaradawi in English International Human Rights Law Enforcement: THE INCONGRUOUS VOICES THAT PREVAIL
