Paul Cézanne, 1839-1906 Ulrike Becks-Malorny, 2001 From banker to painter Cezanne and the Impressionists Harmony in parallel with nature Still lifes Mont Saint Victoire Latter years

Paul Cézanne 1839-1906 Anna Barskaya, Yevgenia Georgievskaya, 2011-07-01 Since his death 200 years ago C zanne has become the most famous painter of the nineteenth century He was born in Aix en Provence in 1839 and the happiest period of his life was his early youth in Provence in company with Emile Zol another Italian Following Zol s example C zanne went to Paris in his twenty first year During the Franco Prussian war he deserted the military dividing his time between open air painting and the studio He said to Vollard an art dealer I m only a painter Parisian wit gives me a pain Painting nudes on the banks of the Arc a river near Aix is all I could ask for Encouraged by Renoir one of the first to appreciate him he exhibited with the impressionists in 1874 and in 1877 He was received with derision which deeply hurt him C zanne s ambition in his own words was to make out of Impressionism something as solid and durable as the paintings of the museums His aim was to achieve the monumental in a modern language of glowing vibrating tones C zanne wanted to retain the natural colour of an object and to harmonise it with the various influences of light and shade trying to destroy it to work out a scale of tones expressing the mass and character of the form C zanne loved to paint fruit because it afforded him obedient models and he was a slow worker He did not intend to simply copy an apple He kept the dominant colour and the character of the fruit but heightened the emotional appeal of the form by a scheme of rich and concordant tones In his paintings of still life he is a master His fruit and vegetable compositions are truly dramatic they have the weight the nobility the style of immortal forms No other painter ever brought to a red apple a conviction so heated sympathy so genuinely spiritual or an observation so protracted No other painter of equal ability ever reserved for still life his strongest impulses C zanne restored to painting the pre eminence of knowledge the most essential quality to all creative effort The death of his father in 1886 made him a rich man but he made no change in his abstemious mode of living Soon afterwards C zanne retired permanently to his estate in Provence He was probably the loneliest of painters of his day At times a curious melancholy attacked him a black hopelessness He grew more savage and exacting destroying canvases throwing them out of his studio into the trees abandoning them in the fields and giving them to his son to cut into puzzles or to the people of Aix At the beginning of the century when Vollard arrived in Provence with intentions of buying on speculation all the C zannes he could get hold of the peasantry hearing that a fool from Paris was actually handing out money for old linen produced from barns a considerable number of still lifes and landscapes The old master of Aix was overcome with joy but recognition came too late In 1906 he died from a fever contracted while painting in a downpour of rain
