Raelene Sometimes Beaten Never Conquered:

Raelene Garry Linnell,Raelene Boyle,2004-03-31 Let me show you my scars to know them is to know me So begins the candid memoir of Raelene Boyle one of Australia s most loved national figures the former Olympic sprinter who shot to fame at the age of 17 when she won a silver medal at the Mexico Olympics and whose refusal to use drugs cost her several gold medals details her battles to beat breast and ovarian cancer as well as her ongoing fight to overcome severe depression With the same capacity for honesty and bluntness that prompted her endless disputes with officialdom in her 14 year international athletic career Raelene reveals her disillusionment with the Olympic movement and tells how a shy working class girl managed to turn her insecurities and a series of devastating setbacks into a tale of personal triumph Divided, But Not

Disconnected Tobias Hochscherf,Christoph Laucht,Andrew Plowman,2010-12-01 The Allied agreement after the Second World War did not only partition Germany it divided the nation along the fault lines of a new bipolar world order This inner border made Germany a unique place to experience the Cold War and the German question in this post 1945 variant remained inextricably entwined with the vicissitudes of the Cold War until its end This volume explores how social and cultural practices in both German states between 1949 and 1989 were shaped by the existence of this inner border putting them on opposing sides of the ideological divide between the Western and Eastern blocs as well as stabilizing relations between them This volume s interdisciplinary approach addresses important intersections between history politics and culture offering an important new appraisal of the German experiences of the Cold War So Close Patrick

Mangan,2013-07-30 A tribute to the bravest craziest unluckiest most ridiculous defeats in Australian sporting history Typically there s only one way to win by being the best But there are countless ways of having victory snatched from your grasp Remember Pat Rafter s 2001 Wimbledon final against the enigmatic Goran Ivanisevic Think of Allan Border and Jeff Thomson s titanic last wicket partnership against England in 1982 that nearly won one of the closest fought Tests ever Look no further than Australian walker Jane Saville only a few hundred metres from a gold medal at Sydney 2000 when she was tragically disqualified And yet as Adam Scott shows a devastating defeat can sometimes spur a champion on to glory From the calamitous to the hilarious from the poignant to the absurd sport is about so much more than gold medals premiership trophies and urns filled with ashes And in So Close some of those sportspeople will finally get the recognition they deserve
