Alfred Tennyson Baron Tennyson

Misunderstanding Of Nature Poems:

The Misunderstanding of Nature Sophie Cabot Black, 1994 Sophie Cabot Black is an unabashedly passionate poet Her language is exquisite each word falling perfectly into precise structures of vision Whether in a loose sonnet form or in a taut longer line these poems are exercises in the extension of the soul Devotional and pure Sophie Cabot Black's voice is one of inconstant waiting of meditation on edge The Misunderstanding of Nature encompasses two New Worlds the contemporary one and the one of seventeenth century New England At its epiphany this collection presents a long poem called The Arguments a monologue in the voice of Dorothy Bradford one of the first Englishwomen to have set foot in America Through her complicated search for transcendence we overhear the movements of learning to belong caught at the rim of the wilderness

The Poetry of Anne Finch Charles H. Hinnant, 1994 At the same time her stance as a feminist led her not only to articulate issues in terms of gender but also to define her poetry in opposition to the dominant literary form of the age satire BOOK JACKET

Towards a Romantic Conception of Nature: Coleridge's Poetry up to 1803 H.R.

Rookmaaker, 1984-01-01 This study describes in detail the development of Coleridge's attitude to nature as it is reflected in his poetry It analyses the different stages of Coleridge's search for a meaningful relation to nature from an uncritical adoption of the eighteenth century conventions in his early poetry to a projectionist view in his poems of 1802 It offers challenging new readings of some of Coleridge's major poems like The Ancient Mariner and Dejection: an Ode and tries to rehabilitate some minor ones like The Picture Attention is also paid to his relation with Wordsworth It discusses in detail the philosophical background of Coleridge's views and considers the contribution of German thought to his development As a whole this study affords a new insight into the genesis of romanticism in England

Studies in Early Celtic Nature

Poetry Kenneth Jackson, 2011-06-16 Kenneth Jackson examines nature poetry that was produced in Ireland and Wales in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries Early Welsh Gnostic and Nature Poetry Nicolas Jacobs, 2012 Among the most enigmatic and fascinating of early Welsh poems are the sequences of stanzas commonly categorized as gnomic In their most typical form they juxtapose vivid natural description with generalisations about the physical world and about human life combining an evident delight in weather and the changing seasons landscapes and seascapes and birds beasts and plants with a serious and often witty concern for the moral and practical aspects of daily life The origin and function of these stanzas remains a puzzle some may be associated with particular situations in narratives now lost but as a whole they appear to have developed at an early stage into a recognised genre of their own They may be supposed to have a philosophical purpose serving to assert a continuity between the natural and moral orders on the other hand they may be read simply as a repository of folk wisdom While their interpretation remains a matter for discussion their language is comparatively simple and they thus provide an engaging window on the ordinary conceptual world of mediaeval Wales This volume presents texts of the gnomic stanzas from the most important collection that in Red Book of Hergest and from some other manuscripts with a few other poems containing related material some of them edited in English for the first time together with a literary and linguistic introduction explanatory commentary and extensive glossary Nicolas Jacobs is an Emeritus Fellow of Jesus College Oxford
