Everything is body and dark and I just want my moon to come home because she is warm and open and real. Why doesn't anything feel real? I can't stand it. I just want to curl up on a soft cushion. I need a break. Even though I just had one. I don't know why I can't love you. My eyes are... You she's here. I feel like I can't do enough today. I know I can't feel productive but I don't think I did much. My legs are... quickly. Maybe I should do... work. I slept about an hour before Jackson did. I want to do well in class today, since yesterday was a bit off. Like my stance. I felt awkward at some points and I messed up one of the Pickering exercises in front of the class which was great. I want to practice more at home so I don't feel so out of touch when I get to class. I don't feel so... Maybe going to class will make me feel better, even if I... in the mood to go.
