Screencraft Directing:

Directing Mike Goodridge, 2012 Directing covers all disciplines of film art that pass through the director's hands from development and writing to working with actors, designers and cinematographers to post production and distribution. In this volume 22 of the world's greatest directors come together to share their inspiration and knowledge with the world. They provide insights into the challenges of directing a film. Screencraft Louis Reeves Harrison, 1916 Virgin Film: Oliver Stone Stephen Lavington, 2011-11-30 Three time Oscar winner Oliver Stone is one of the most controversial and well known contemporary American directors. He began his professional life as a screen writer and was responsible for the scripts of Midnight Express and Scarface. As a director he made one of the all time great Vietnam war movies Platoon and went on to helm such definitive cinematic works as Wall Street, Born on the Fourth of July, JFK, Natural Born Killers and most recently Alexander, an epic biography of the legendary Greek king starring Colin Farrell and Anthony Hopkins. This indispensable guide takes each of Stone's writing and directorial features in chronological order, discussing them within categories such as Casting, Cut Scenes, Music, Conspiracy Theory and Controversy. It looks at the inspiration behind his work, its connection with the real world and the story behind each film's development. Whether the subject is war, politics, sport or the defining aspects of an era, Stone is an expert at polarising audience views. This is an essential reference for all fans of Oliver Stone, writer, director and one of the most influential filmmakers of the last twenty five years. Directing Michael Rabiger, 2003 Artistic identity, Screencraft, Writing and story development, Aesthetics and authorship, Preproduction, Production, Postproduction, Career track. Mike Leigh Sean O'Sullivan, 2011-08-01 In this much needed examination of Mike Leigh, Sean O'Sullivan reclaims the British director as a practicing theorist, a filmmaker deeply invested in cinema's formal, conceptual and narrative dimensions. In contrast with Leigh's prevailing reputation as a straightforward crafter of social realist movies, O'Sullivan illuminates the visual tropes and storytelling investigations that position Leigh as an experimental filmmaker who uses the art and artifice of cinema to frame tales of the everyday and the extraordinary alike. O'Sullivan challenges the prevailing characterizations of Leigh's cinema by detailing the complicated constructions of his realism, positing his films not as transparent records of life but as aesthetic transformations of it. Concentrating on the most recent two decades of Leigh's career, the study examines how Naked Secrets and Lies, Topsy Turvy, Vera Drake and other films engage narrative convergence and narrative diffusion, the tension between character and plot, the interplay of coincidence and design, cinema's relationship to other systems of representation and the filmic rendering of the human figure. The book also spotlights such earlier, less discussed works as Four Days in July and The Short and Curlies, illustrating the recurring visual and storytelling concerns of Leigh's cinema. With a detailed filmography, this volume also includes key selections from O'Sullivan's several interviews with Leigh. Merchant-Ivory Laurence Raw, 2012-03-27 Merchant-Ivory Interviews gathers together for the first time interviews made over a span of fifty years with director James Ivory (b. 1928), producer Ismail Merchant (1936-2005).

and screenwriter Ruth Praver Jhabvala 1927 2013 Beginning with their earliest work in India and ending with James Ivory's last film The City of Your Final Destination 2009 the book traces their career while offering valuable insights into their creative filmmaking process The volume serves as a corrective to the prevailing critical orthodoxy attached to Merchant Ivory's work which tends to regard them as being solely concerned with historically accurate costumes and settings As independent filmmakers they have developed an idiosyncratic approach that resists facile classification Merchant Ivory have insisted on maintaining their independence More importantly this book shows how Merchant Ivory have always taken considerable care in casting their films as well as treating actors with respect This is a deliberate policy designed to bring out one of the triumvirate's principal thematic concerns running throughout their work the impact of the clash of cultures on individuals Partly this has been inspired by their collective experiences of living and working in different cultures They do not offer any answers to this issue rather they believe that their task is simply to raise awareness to make filmgoers conscious of the importance of cultural sensitivities that assume paramount significance in any exchange whether verbal or nonverbal
