Poignant Verses:

The Listeners and Other Poems Walter De la Mare, 2019-12-02 Walter De la Mare's The Listeners and Other Poems is a masterful collection that showcases the author's lyrical prowess and his profound engagement with themes of the supernatural and the human psyche. Composed in a style marked by an ethereal quality and rich imagery, these poems often blur the lines between reality and imagination. The titular poem, The Listeners, evokes a haunting atmosphere that speaks to the solitude of the human condition, while the entire collection reflects De la Mare's ability to weave complex emotions into accessible verse. Set against the backdrop of early 20th-century modernism, his work resonates with the period's exploration of inner worlds and existential musings. Walter De la Mare was a prominent English poet, novelist, and short story writer whose literary career was marked by a fascination with folklore, the mystic, and the psychological depths of mankind. His unique upbringing, marked by a love of nature and an affinity for stories, influenced his artistic vision. De la Mare's experiences during World War I and the subsequent societal changes also informed his exploration of the darker aspects of human existence and spirituality. This collection is a poignant invitation to readers to delve into the mystique of De la Mare's world. Those who appreciate the interplay of nature, memory, and eerie beauty will find The Listeners and Other Poems a profoundly enriching experience, making it an essential addition to any poetry enthusiast's library.

Memorial Day, and Other Verse (Original and Translated) Helen Leah Reed, 2019-12-18 In Memorial Day and Other Verse (Original and Translated), Helen Leah Reed presents a compelling collection of poetry that offers a poignant reflection on themes of memory, loss, and the human experience. Reed's literary style is marked by her lyrical eloquence and thoughtful use of imagery, capturing the nuances of emotion while exploring the intersections between personal and collective histories. The collection includes original poems alongside meaningful translations, allowing readers to appreciate a diverse range of voices and cultures that enrich the contemporary poetic landscape. The work is situated within the broader context of American literature in the early 20th century, where a burgeoning interest in both personal and universal themes in poetry emerged, echoing the sentiments of post-war reflection and societal change. Helen Leah Reed was an esteemed poet and translator known for her dedication to bridging cultural gaps through literature. Her background in education, coupled with her experience within various literary circles, significantly informed her writing. Reed's own encounters with loss and remembrance, particularly during a time of great national upheaval, inspired her to delve deep into themes relevant to Memorial Day, creating a powerful homage to those who have sacrificed for their country. This collection is highly recommended for readers seeking a profound exploration of memory and identity through verse. Reed's ability to blend personal tragedy with wider historical implications offers an enriching experience for both poetry enthusiasts and scholars alike. Each poem serves as an invitation to reflect on the layers of human experience, making this volume not only a literary treasure but also a study into the heart of remembrance. In this enriched edition, we have carefully created added value for Fulfillment of Prophecy Gary Gallant,2023-08-30 Many believers neglect to study the Old Testament because they find it confusing or because they assume that it is less important to the Christian faith than the New Testament We cannot understand Jesus or His gospel without a proper grounding in the Old Testament Scriptures Thus we need to read and study the whole counsel of God Let us not neglect the study of either testament Unique among all books ever written the Bible accurately foretells specific events in detail many years sometimes centuries before they occur Approximately 2 500 prophecies appear in the pages of the Bible about 2 000 of which already have been fulfilled to the letter no errors The remaining 500 or so reach into the future and may be seen unfolding as days go by Since the probability of any one of these prophecies having been fulfilled by chance averages less than one in ten figured very conservatively and since the prophecies are for the most part independent of one another the odds for all these prophecies having been fulfilled by chance without error is less than one in 102000 that is 1 with 2 000 zeros written after it God is not the only one however who uses forecasts of future events to get people s attention Satan does too Through clairvoyants such as Jeanne Dixon and Edgar Cayce mediums spiritists and others come remarkable predictions though rarely with more than about 60 percent accuracy never with total accuracy Messages from Satan furthermore fail to match the details of Bible prophecies nor do they include a call to repentance The acid test for identifying a prophet of God is recorded by Moses in Deuteronomy 18 21 22 According to this Bible passage and others God s prophets as distinct from Satan s spokesmen are 100 percent accurate in their predictions There is no room for error The New Testament indicates that what happened at the cross and on it was what the prophets had predicted would happen long before Details of Jesus life and death were written in divine prophecy hundreds of years before He was born in Bethlehem Throughout the Gospels this amazing truth is emphasized As Jesus and His apostles left the upper room for the Garden of Gethsemane He said to them You will all fall away because it is written I will strike down the shepherd and the sheep shall be scattered Mark 14 27 After Judas betrayal Jesus rebuked Peter for drawing his sword and cutting off the ear of Malchus and said to him Put your sword back into its place How then will the Scriptures be fulfilled which say that it must happen this way Matthew 26 52 54 On the cross Jesus waited until He saw that all things had already been accomplished before He uttered His only physical request I am thirsty John 19 28 Later the spear was thrust into Jesus side and blood and water came out We read For these things came to pass to fulfill the Scripture Not a bone of Him shall be broken And again another Scripture says They shall look on Him whom they pierced John 19 36 37 The angel who was at the tomb on the morning of the resurrection said Remember how He spoke to you while He was still in Galilee saying that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified and the third day rises again Luke 24 6 7 When Jesus met with the apostles and disciples Sunday evening the same day He arose from the dead He said to them These are My words which I spoke to you while I was still with you that all things which are written about Me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise again from the dead the third day and that repentance for forgiveness of sins would be proclaimed in His name to all the nations beginning from Jerusalem Luke 24 44 47 In Jesus affirmation to those Sunday night witnesses He referred to all three divisions of the Hebrew Old Testament the Law of Moses the Prophets and the Psalms as He described the prophecies that had been fulfilled in Him It has been said that if one reads any part of the Bible and does not see Jesus in it he should go back and reread it for he has missed something very important In Peter s first gospel sermon on the Day of Pentecost he declared that Jesus had been delivered into the hands of godless men to be put to death by the predetermined plan and foreknowledge of God Acts 2 23 In his second sermon in Acts Peter covered in one sweeping sentence the prophecies of the whole Old Testament saying that Jesus sufferings on the cross fulfilled all that had been prophesied But the things which God announced beforehand by the mouth of all the prophets that His Christ would suffer He has thus fulfilled Acts 3 18
