

WHAT IS HUMANISM?

Humanism is a Renaissance cultural movement which turned away from medieval scholasticism and revived interest in ancient Greek and Roman thought.

Humanism is an approach to life based on reason and our common humanity, recognizing that moral values are properly founded on human nature and experience alone.

Humanists reject the idea or belief in a supernatural being such as God. This means that humanists class themselves as agnostic or atheist.

On Humanism Richard Norman, 2013-03-01 What is humanism and why does it matter Is there any doctrine every humanist must hold If it rejects religion what does it offer in its place Have the twentieth century s crimes against humanity spelled the end for humanism On Humanism is a timely and powerfully argued philosophical defence of humanism It is also an impassioned plea that we turn to ourselves not religion if we want to answer Socrates age old question what is the best kind of life to lead Although humanism has much in common with science Richard Norman shows that it is far from a denial of the more mysterious fragile side of being human He deals with big questions such as Darwinism and creation science matter and consciousness euthanasia and abortion and then argues that it is ultimately through the human capacity for art literature and the imagination that humanism is a powerful alternative to religious belief This revised second edition includes a new chapter on the debates between the New Atheists such as Richard Dawkins and Christopher Hitchens and their religious critics asking why the two sides in the debate so often seem to be talking past one another and suggesting how the conversation could be made more fruitful Richard Norman is a committed humanist and the author of many books including The Moral Philosophers and Ethics Killing and War He was formerly Professor of Philosophy at the University of Kent Canterbury

95 Theses on Humanism Ignace Demaerel, 2018-08-02 Since the rise and growth of secularization the place of God and religion is becoming increasingly problematic in our Western culture But what is the alternative to its Christian heritage Humanism puts man at the center of everything but can you believe in man just as much as you can believe in God Is this secular worldview really rational based on science consistent and durable And above all does our society become more humane because of it Can you simply obliterate God from our culture and values without these collapsing like a pudding Secular humanism has always been extremely critical of the church and in itself that is allowed but what if we judge and measure it with the same criteria
