Brink, 2013-04-18 In Mill's Progressive Principles David Brink provides a systematic reconstruction and assessment of John Stuart Mill's contributions to the utilitarian and liberal traditions examining his first principles and their application to issues of representative democracy and sexual equality Brink defends novel interpretations of key elements in Mill's moral and political philosophy including his concepts of motivation happiness duty proof harm and the harm principle freedom of expression anti paternalism representative democracy and weighted voting and sexual equality However the most distinctive aspect of this account of Mill's commitments is the case it makes for a perfectionist reading of his conception of happiness and the significance this has for other aspects of his moral and political philosophy On this perfectionist conception the chief ingredients of happiness involve the exercise of a person's capacities for practical deliberation and decision that mark us as progressive beings Once this perfectionist theme is made explicit it can be shown to be central to Mill's views about utilitarianism liberalism rights democratic government and sexual equality      Essays on the Intellectual Powers of the Human Mind to Which are Added an Essay on Quantity and an Analysis of Aristoteles Logic Thomas Reid, 1827      On First Principles Origen, 1966      Perhaps Joshua McNall, Joshua M. McNall, 2021-09-21 Christians are sometimes faced with uncertainty But is all uncertainty bad Theologian Joshua McNall encourages readers to reclaim the little word perhaps as a sacred space between the warring extremes of unchecked doubt and zealous dogmatism Learn how to exercise a hopeful imagination ask hard questions return once again to Scripture and reclaim the place of holy speculation      First Principles Kip McKean, 2014-03-14 Originally the First Principles study series were written in 1980 by Kip McKean while serving in the Boston Church of Christ They were revised in 2003 and 2006 to meet the needs and challenges of the Portland International Church of Christ In 2008 First Principles lessons were again revised and were taught to all new disciples in the City of Angels International Christian Church God has greatly blessed these lessons as they have been translated into over 20 languages around the world      The Works of Thomas Reid, 1863      The Works of Thomas Reid ... Tossell sir Walter Scott (bart.), 1882      Death of the Desert Christine Luckritz Marquis, 2022-03-22 In the late fourth century the world of Christianity was torn apart by debate over the teachings of the third century theologian Origen and his positions on the incorporeality of God In the year 400 Archbishop Theophilus of Alexandria convened a council declaring Origen's later followers as heretics Shortly thereafter Theophilus banished the so called Tall Brothers four Origenist monks who led monastic communities in the western Egyptian desert along with hundreds of their brethren In some accounts Theophilus leads a violent group of drunken youths and enslaved Ethiopians in sacking and desecrating the monastery in others he justly exercises his episcopal duties In some versions Theophilus violent actions effectively bring the Golden Age of desert monasticism to an end in others he has shown proper respect for the desert fathers whose life of asceticism is subsequently destroyed by bands of barbarian marauders For some the desert came to be inextricably connected to violence and trauma while for others it became a site of nostalgic recollection Which of these narratives subsequent generations believed depended in good part on the sources they were reading In Death of the Desert Christine Luckritz Marquis offers a fresh examination of this critical juncture in Christian history and brings into dialogue narrative strands that have largely been separated in the scholarly tradition She takes the violence perpetrated by Theophilus as a turning point for desert monasticism and considers how monks became involved in acts of violence and how that violence came back to haunt them More broadly her careful attention to the dynamic relations between memory practices the rhetorical constructions of place racialized discourse and language and deeds of violence speak to us in our own time
