Old Wars:

New and Old Wars Mary Kaldor, 2013-04-26 Mary Kaldor's New and Old Wars has fundamentally changed the way both scholars and policy makers understand contemporary war and conflict. In the context of globalization this path breaking book has shown that what we think of as war that is to say war between states in which the aim is to inflict maximum violence is becoming an anachronism. In its place is a new type of organized violence or new wars which could be described as a mixture of war organized crime and massive violations of human rights. The actors are both global and local public and private. The wars are fought for particularistic political goals using tactics of terror and destabilization that are theoretically outlawed by the rules of modern warfare. Kaldor's analysis offers a basis for a cosmopolitan political response to these wars in which the monopoly of legitimate organized violence is reconstructed on a transnational basis and international peacekeeping is reconceptualized as cosmopolitan law enforcement. This approach also has implications for the reconstruction of civil society political institutions and economic and social relations. This third edition has been fully revised and updated. Kaldor has added an afterword answering the critics of the New Wars argument and in a new chapter Kaldor shows how old war thinking in Afghanistan and Iraq greatly exacerbated what turned out to be in many ways archetypal new wars characterised by identity politics a criminalised war economy and civilians as the main victims. Like its predecessors the third edition of New and Old Wars will be essential reading for students of international relations politics and conflict studies as well as to all those interested in the changing nature and prospect of warfare.

Global Phenomena and Social Sciences Jean-Sylvestre Bergé, Sophie Harnay, Ulrike Mayrhofer, Lionel Obadia, 2017-10-26 This book offers new perspectives on global phenomena that play a major role in today's society and deeply shape the actions of individuals organizations and nations. In a complex and rapidly changing environment decision makers need to gain a better understanding of global phenomena to adapt and to anticipate the evolution of the global context. The authors ten renowned international scholars of anthropology economics law management and political science propose an interdisciplinary and comparative approach to social sciences. They analyse how international phenomena such as globalisation or transnationalisation transform the disciplines of social sciences from an epistemological standpoint. Explaining what global means in difference disciplines the authors analyse several global phenomena that characterise today's international environment such as the circulation of norms and ideas the linkages between war and globalization corporate governance and the impact of multinational enterprises on sustainable development and poverty reduction. Providing examples of analytical disciplinary approaches and guidelines for decision makers in a fast changing global context this book will be useful to scholars and students of anthropology economics law management and political science as well as practitioners in the private and public sectors.

examples of the violence the country had to endure Since 2006 the LRA is no threat to Uganda anymore as the movement withdraw to the neighbouring countries and has lost a significant amount of strength Several scholars offered different explanations as to why the LRA was able to gain their power and remained to terrorize the Ugandan population for such a long period of time Many believe that the spiritual system is the main driver behind the high number of fighters and the success of their leader Joseph Kony But the use of extreme violence against the government military forces as well as against the civilian population is one of the aspects which let the LRA maintain their crusade However the strongest argument lies within the north south divide of the country which led to inequality and can be seen as one of the main reasons for the conflict This paper will examine the causes for civil wars with the focus on the conflict in northern Uganda
