

Mercy

Once, we were grilling zucchini from the garden. It was summertime and I was about to leave you.
A praying mantis landed on the grill.
He was bright and beautiful even as he fizzled and I burned all my fingertips trying to save him.
You can't tell when an insect is in pain but he must have been and you put him in the grass so softly where I found and stomped him.
And I think it surprised us what we each defined as mercy.
