Crime and Disorder in Community Context Rebecca Wickes, Lorraine Mazerolle, 2021-11-29 Drawing on unique longitudinal community level data in Brisbane this book entwines current ecological theories of crime with key debates on the relevance of community in contemporary urban life to examine the spatial and temporal relationships between community structure community social capital informal social control and the occurrence of crime and disorder Crime and Disorder in Community Context extends what is known about the concentration of crime in particular types of places presenting a broad reaching explication of how community structural characteristics community regulatory processes and crime influence each other over time It looks at how growing levels of ethnic diversity income inequality and increasing immigrant concentrations at the community level influence processes necessary for the regulation of crime the crime control processes for various crime problems in different types of communities the extent that exogenous shocks like the 2011 Brisbane flood disaster and the global financial crisis impact on crime crime prevention and crime control and engages readers with the methodological complexities associated with the longitudinal study of crime and disorder in contemporary urban communities An accessible and compelling read this will appeal to students and scholars of criminology sociology geography cultural studies and all those interested in the relationship between crime and community

Crime Fiction in the Caribbean Lucy Evans, 2024-09-18 Crime Fiction in the Caribbean Reframing Crime and Justice is the first academic book to focus on crime fiction by anglophone Caribbean writers It explores how contemporary writers experiment with the crime genre in order to convey contextualize and comment on crime and justice in Caribbean countries Lucy Evans reads crime fiction as a versatile mode of writing that can be politically engaged and that in a Caribbean context can expose power structures embedded in the region s multi layered history of colonial conquest genocide of Indigenous populations plantation agriculture transatlantic slavery and indentured labour This book covers fiction set in Trinidad and Tobago Jamaica Guyana Barbados Grenada and Haiti discussing novels by Elizabeth Nunez Jacob Ross Marlon James Harischandra Khemraj Esther Figueroa Edwidge Danticat Cherie Jones and several others Evans considers how fiction by anglophone Caribbean writers not only reflects upon the social realities of crime and crime control in the Caribbean but also at times contests or complicates scholarly popular and legal perspectives She argues that through their engagement with the crime genre these writers raise pressing questions about what constitutes crime and justice in a Caribbean context and about accountability Looking beyond the traditional focus of crime fiction and criminology on individual acts of wrongdoing their fiction highlights systemic social harms rooted in the region s colonial past Reading crime fiction through the lens of criminological research Crime Fiction in the Caribbean brings the study of literary writing into scholarly debate on crime in the Caribbean At the same time it extends the global turn in crime fiction studies focusing on a region that has been sidelined even in studies which examine the genre s international dimensions
