The MIT Encyclopedia of Communication Disorders Raymond D. Kent, 2004 A major new reference work with entries covering the entire field of communication and speech disorders Problems of aphasia, 1979 Studies of the Reliability of the Problem Box and the Maze with Human and Animal Subjects William Thomas Heron, Walter Samuel Hunter, 1923 The Problems of Psychological Research Hereward Carrington, 1914 The SAGE Encyclopedia of Human Communication Sciences and Disorders Jack S. Damico, Martin J. Ball, 2019-03-01 The SAGE Encyclopedia of Human Communication Sciences and Disorders is an in depth encyclopedia aimed at students interested in interdisciplinary perspectives on human communication both normal and disordered across the lifespan This timely and unique set will look at the spectrum of communication disorders from causation and prevention to testing and assessment through rehabilitation intervention and education Examples of the interdisciplinary reach of this encyclopedia A strong focus on health issues with topics such as Asperger s syndrome fetal alcohol syndrome anatomy of the human larynx dementia etc Including core psychology and cognitive sciences topics such as social development stigma language acquisition self help groups memory depression memory Behaviorism and cognitive development Education is covered in topics such as cooperative learning special education classroom based service delivery The editors have recruited top researchers and clinicians across multiple fields to contribute to approximately 640 signed entries across four volumes Aphasia Rehabilitation Patrick Coppens, Janet L. Patterson, 2017-01-05 Aphasia Rehabilitation Challenging Clinical Issues focuses on specific aphasia symptoms and clinical issues that present challenges for rehabilitation professionals These topics are typically not addressed as separate topics even in clinical texts This heavily clinical text will also include thorough discussions of theoretical underpinnings For chapters that focus on specific clinical challenges practical suggestions to facilitate clinical application and maximize clinical usefulness This resource integrates theoretical and practical information to aid a clinician in planning treatment for individuals with aphasia The Family Guide to Surviving Stroke and Communication Disorders Dennis C. Tanner, 2008 A comprehensive guide for families of stroke survivors speech pathologists and rehabilitation specialists and counselors who respond to the needs of stroke survivors and their families this edition engages all readers on a journey toward understanding healing and persevering after a stroke and uses non technical terms case studies questions and answers and examples The Lancet, 1897 Stuttering and Allied Disorders Lewis Orvin Anderson, 1923 Hearing, Speech, and Communication Disorders Information Center for Hearing Speech and Disorders, 2012-12-06 Information analysis centers were developed to help the scientist and practitioner cope with the ever increasing mass of published and unpublished information in a specific field Their establishment resulted from a further extension of those pressures that had brought about the formation of the specialized primary journal and the abstracting services at the turn of the century The information analysis center concept was greatly advanced by the 1963 report of the President s Science Advisory Committee

Panel on Science Information This report stated scientific interpreters who can collect relevant data review a field and distill information in a manner that goes to the heart of a technical situation are more help to the overburdened specialist than is a mere pile of relevant documents Such specialized information centers are operated in closest possible contact with working scientists in the field These centers not only furnish information about ongoing research and disseminate and retrieve information but also create new information and develop new methods of information analysis synthesis and dissemination The continually expanding biomedical literature produced by scientists from the world's laboratories research centers and medical centers led the National Institute of Neurological Diseases and Stroke in 1964 to initiate a National Neurological Information Network of specialized centers for neurological information The Centers are designed to bring under control and to promote ready access to important segments of the literature The Journal of Speech and Hearing Disorders, 1989

The Homiletic Review, 1922 Clinical Management of Communication Problems in Adults with Traumatic Brain Injury Anita S. Halper, Leora Reiff Cherney, Trudy K. Miller, 1991 A comprehensive and structured approach to the development and implementation of treatment plans and the documentation of progress Focuses on the cognitive linguistic problems that are unique to TBI patients as well as a framework on which subsequent evaluation and treatment guidelines are based

Aphasia David Frank Benson, Alfredo Ardila, 1996 An up to date integrated analysis of the language disturbances associated with brain pathology this book examines the different types of aphasia combining two clinical approaches the neurological and the neuropsychological Although they stress the clinical aspects of aphasia syndromes they also review assessment techniques linguistic analyses problems of aphasia classification and frequently occurring related disorders such as alexia agraphia acalculia and anomia In addition they examine commonly encountered speech disorders neurobehavioral and psychiatric problems commonly associated with aphasia and the language characteristics of aging and dementia Rehabilitation and recovery are discussed and a neural basis for aphasia and related problems is proposed

Neuropsychologists neurologists speech therapists psychiatrists and occupational therapists will find this book invaluable when dealing with language disorders resulting from brain disease or injury A Treatise on Aphasia and Other Speech
