Wildlife Review, 1995 Encyclopedia of the World's Zoos Catharine E. Bell, 2001 First Published in 2001
Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Metropolitan Toronto Metropolitan Toronto (Ont.).
Council, 1969 Animality and Colonial Subjecthood in Africa Saheed Aderinto, 2022-05-17 With this multispecies study of animals as instrumentalities of the colonial state in Nigeria Saheed Aderinto argues that animals like humans were colonial subjects in Africa Animality and Colonial Subjecthood in Africa broadens the historiography of animal studies by putting a diverse array of species dogs horses livestock and wildlife into a single analytical framework for understanding colonialism in Nigeria and Africa as a whole From his study of animals with unequal political economic social and intellectual capabilities Aderinto establishes that the core dichotomies of human colonial subjecthood indispensable yet disposable good and bad violent but peaceful saintly and lawless were also embedded in the identities of Nigeria's animal inhabitants If class religion ethnicity location and attitude toward imperialism determined the pattern of relations between human Nigerians and the colonial government then species habitat material value threat and biological and psychological characteristics among other traits shaped imperial perspectives on animal Nigerians Conceptually sophisticated and intellectually engaging Aderinto's thesis challenges readers to rethink what constitutes history and to recognize that human agency and narrative are not the only makers of the past Metropolitan Zoo Joseph Bell, 1985 Shows paintings sculpture watercolors tapistries and ceramics from around the world which feature lions tigers bears squirrels rabbits monkeys deer elephants fish and birds

, 1966 Animal Geographies Jennifer Wolch, Jody Emel, 1998-09-17 Each year billions of animals are poisoned dissected displaced killed for consumption or held in captivity usually for the benefit of humans The animal world has never been under greater peril and this broad ranging collection contributes to a much needed fundamental rethinking about our relation with it Animal Geographies explores the diverse ways in which animals shape the formation of human identity Essays on zoos and wolves for example reveal how animals figure in social constructions of race gender and nationality From questions of identity and subjectivity it moves to a consideration of the places where people and animals confront the realities of coexistence on an everyday basis by way of case studies of species such as mountain lions and the golden eagle It then examines the ways in which animals figure in the ongoing globalization of production and mass consumption illustrated by essays on the US meatpacking industry and meat production in the Indian state of Rajasthan and finally takes up legal and ethical approaches to human animal relations Animal Geographies compels a profound rethinking of the nature of human animal relations and offers a series of proposals for reconstituting this relationship on a progressive basis Contributors Kay
