Supplement to the Handbook of Middle American Indians, Volume 6 John D. Monaghan, Barbara W. Edmonson, 2000 In this Ethnology supplement anthropologists who have carried out long term fieldwork among indigenous people review the ethnographic literature in the various regions of Middle America and discuss the theoretical and methodological orientations that have framed the work of scholars over the last several decades They examine how research agendas have developed in relationship to broader interests in the field and the ways in which the anthropology of the region has responded to the sociopolitical and economic policies of Mexico and Guatemala Most importantly they focus on the changing conditions of life of the indigenous peoples of Mesoamerica This volume offers a comprehensive picture of both the indigenous populations and developments in the anthropology of the region over the last thirty years Frauenforschung, Frauenbewegung und Feminismus in Lateinamerika und Karibik Margarete Maurer, 1992 Sacrificing The Forest Karen O'Brien, 2018-05-04 The Selva Lacandona of Chiapas Mexico has received a tremendous amount of attention since the Zapatista uprising began in 1994 Concerns have focused on both the rapid rate of deforestation in Mexico's largest tropical rain forest and the social marginalization of its inhabitants which is considered to be a root cause of the uprising In this book Karen O'Brien presents an insightful analysis of how deforestation and social struggles are related in this region and then considers the implications of these links for the remaining forest A critical analysis of deforestation rates and patterns in the Selva Lacandona region provides the point of departure for this study Using satellite imagery and her own field work O'Brien presents an original estimate of forest loss She then uses an approach derived from political ecology to trace the links between social processes and deforestation Instead of focusing exclusively on the driving forces of deforestation she argues that an analysis of the countervailing forces of conservation efforts is crucial to understanding the configuration of the present day forest and the conflicts that surround it Unless these forces can be fused O'Brien contends the future of the Selva Lacandona will continue to be shaped by the tensions among social economic and environmental objectives A valuable tool for scholars of deforestation environmental change and political ecology Sacrificing the Forest will also be of interest to readers trying to understand the current situation in Chiapas Zeitungs-Index ,1989 DuMont Reise-Taschenbuch Reiseführer Yucatan & Chiapas Hans-Joachim Aubert, 2014-04-01 Palmen wiegen sich am schneeweißen Sandstrand das türkisfarbene Meer lädt zum Baden oder Schnorcheln ein Die kleine Isla Mujeres hat Autor Hans Joachim Aubert schon vor vielen Jahren während seiner ersten Reise an die Karibikküste der mexikanischen Halbinsel Yucatán verzaubert Abseits des Touristentrubels lockt die Insel der Frauen noch heute Erholungssuchende mit echten Bilderbuchstränden Als perfekter Urlaubsbegleiter zeigt das neue DuMont Reise Taschenbuch Yucatán Chiapas was es im ehemaligen Maya Reich sonst noch
