Signs and Wonders

One piece of the argument of The Four Ways Forward: Becoming an Apostolic Parish in a Post-Christian World is that the evangelization initiatives that have emerged within the New Evangelization can be divided into four models. In order to meet people at different thresholds of human and Christian maturation, any fruitful parish will be engaged in at least three of the four. This worksheet is an opportunity to assess the strength of your parish or cluster by doing a quick check on which supports you have in place, and which are missing.

As mentioned in the book, think of creating a table. A table works best with four legs. A workable table has three. But a two legged or one legged table isn't usually going to work—or even be a table. To extend the metaphor, a parish must create a table on earth to host many to a wedding feast in heaven. This is not about bragging numbers or vitality; it is about accompanying people who are lost into the home of the Father, together.

Finally, assume nothing! Don't check these boxes because you think you must be doing that already. Make this a fearless inventory, as they say. Being clear-sighted now is essential to assessment. Consider doing this as a parish staff or council, spending time individually with the assessment, and then considering each model's implementation or lack thereof for 15 minutes.

In closing: just for fun, draw the table your assessment creates. The higher the number on each model's last question, the longer and stronger the leg of the table. Do you have a workable table? How could it be improved?

Don't be discouraged if you come away from this exercise recognizing a lot of lack. You have taken the first step in turning into an apostolic parish. Rejoice and be glad—God is on the side of the honest and humble who seek Him.
