Postscript to Murder M. R. D. Meek, 1996 Selected Studies in Romantic and American Literature, History, and

Culture Professor Charles J Rzepka, 2013-04-28 Gathered together for the first time the essays in this volume were selected to give scholars ready access to important late twentieth and early twenty first century contributions to scholarship on the Romantic period and twentieth century literature and culture Included are Charles J Rzepka s award winning essays on Keats s Chapman s Homer sonnet and Wordsworth s Michael and his critical intervention into anachronistic new historicist readings of the circumstances surrounding the composition of Tintern Abbey Other Romantic period essays provide innovative interpretations of De Quincey s relation to theatre and the anti slavery movement Genre is highlighted in Rzepka s exploration of race and region in Charlie Chan while his interdisciplinary essay on The Wizard of Oz and the New Woman takes the reader on a journey that encompasses the Oz of L Frank Baum and Victor Fleming as well as the professional lives of Judy Garland and Liza Minnelli Taken together the essays provide not only a career retrospective of an influential scholar and teacher but also a map of the innovations and controversies that have influenced literary studies from the early 1980s to the present As Peter Manning observes in his foreword this collection shows that even in diverse essays the force of a curious and disciplined mind makes itself felt Postscript to Murder Patrick Winn, 1964 Murder at Smutty Nose Edmund Lester Pearson, 1926 Calendar of the Patent Rolls Preserved in the Public Record Office Great Britain. On murder considered as one of the fine arts. Early memorials of

Grasmere. Revolt of the Tartars Thomas De Quincey, 1888

The Aesthetics of Murder Joel Black, 1991-09

What connects the Romantic essays of Thomas De Quincey and the violent cinema of Brian De Palma Or the beautiful suicides of Hedda Gabler and Yukio Mishima Or the shootings of John Lennon and Ronald Reagan In The Aesthetics of Murder Joel Black explores the sometimes gruesome interplay between life and art between actual violence and images of violence in a variety of literary texts paintings and films Rather than exclude murder from critical consideration by dismissing it as a crime Black urges us to ponder the killer s artistic role and our own experience as audience witness or voyeur Black examines murder as a recurring obsessive theme in the Romantic tradition approaching the subject from an aesthetic rather than a moral psychological or philosophical perspective And he brings into his discussion contemporary instances of sensational murders and assassinations treating these as mimetic or cathartic activities in their own right Combining historical documentation with theoretical insights Black shows that the possibilities of representing violence and of experiencing it as art were recognized early in the nineteenth century as logical extensions of Romantic theories of the sublime Since then both traditional art forms and the modern mass media have contributed to the growing aestheticization of daily experience
