Postcards From The Interior:

Postcards from the Interior Wyn Cooper, 2005-06-01 Postcards from the Interior is a collection of postcard poems written from different geographical locations and varied states of heart and mind The first section Postcards from Vermont is composed of poems about Vermont towns and historical landmarks The second section Postcards from the Interior stretches to include poems from far flung places real and imagined Adroit at juxtaposing the exterior weather of landscapes and the interior weather of the human condition Cooper writes poetry with the heft of a Romantic meditation and the breezy ease of contemporary song lyrics Wyn Cooper has published three previous poetry collections A poem from his first book was turned into lyrics for Sheryl Crow's Grammy winning song All I Wanna Do He lives in Battleboro Vermont We are the Interior Maureen Owen, 1991

Real Photo Postcard Guide Robert Bogdan, Todd Weseloh, 2006-09-21 The Real Photo Postcard Guide is an informative comprehensive and practical treatment of this wildly popular American phenomenon that dominated the United States photographic market during the first third of the twentieth century Robert Bogdan and Todd Weseloh draw on extensive research and observation to address all aspects of the photo postcard from its history origin and cultural significance to practical matters like dating purchasing condition and preservation Illustrated with over 350 exceptional photo postcards taken from archives and private collections across the country the scope of the Real Photo Postcard Guide spans technical considerations of production characteristics of superior images collecting categories and methods of research for dating photo postcards and investigating their photographers In a broader sense the authors show how real photo postcards document the social history of America From family outings and workplace awards to lynchings and natural disasters every image captures a moment of American cultural history from the society that generated them Bogdan and Weseloh's book provides an admirable integration of informative text and compelling photographic illustrations Collectors archivists photographers photo historians social scientists and anyone interested in the visual documentation of America will find the Real Photo Postcard Guide indispensable

Public Space and the Ideology of Place in American Culture, 2009-01-01 We typically take public space for granted as if it has continuously been there yet public space has always been the expression of the will of some agency person or institution who names the space gives it purpose and monitors its existence And often its use has been contested These new essays written for this volume approach public space through several key questions Who has the right to define public space How do such places generate and sustain symbolic meaning Is public space unchanging or is it subject to our subjective perception Do we given the public nature of public space have the right to subvert it These eighteen essays including several case studies offer convincing evidence of a spatial turn in American studies They argue for a re-visioning of American culture as a history of place making and the instantiation of meaning in structures boundaries and spatial configurations Chronologically the subjects range from Pierre L Enfant's initial majestic conceptualization of Washington D C to the post modern realization that public space in the U S is increasingly a matter of waste Topics range from parks to cities to small towns from open air museums to airports encompassing the commercial marketing of place as well as the subversion and re possession of public space by the disenfranchised Ultimately public space is variously imagined as the site of social and political contestation and of aesthetic change Journal of the Photographic Society of London ,1907 Vols for 1853 include the transactions of the Royal Photographic Society of Great Britain Advertising and Selling ,1917 The High School Curriculum and Syllabi of High School Subjects ... ,1925 Advertising & Selling ,1917 Irish Rural Interiors in Art Claudia Kinmonth,2006-01-01 This book offers a fascinating view of many aspects of Irish rural life from the eighteenth to the mid twentieth century Illustrated with more than 250 images many of which have not been published before the book evokes the hardships and celebrations of laborers and farmers men and women the old and the young as depicted in oil paintings watercolors drawings prints postcards and cartoons Most of the illustrations show people engaged in indoor activities at home but schools shops pubs and doctors surgeries are also included Claudia Kinmonth draws on extensive knowledge of the material culture of rural life to present a new social history of Irish country people Working within a broadly chronological framework the author addresses such themes and patterns of rural life as the architecture of houses where people slept cooking over the open hearth rural dress display childcare work within the home the arrangement of marriages weddings wakes and celebrations The book also explores why Irish and foreign artists depicted rural interiors and sets their work in the context of art history Postcard America Jeffrey L. Meikle,2016-01-20 From the Great Depression through the early postwar years any postcard sent in America was more than likely a linen card Colorized in vivid often exaggerated hues and printed on card stock embossed with a linen like texture linen postcards celebrated the American scene with views of majestic landscapes modern cityscapes roadside attractions and other notable features These colorful images portrayed the United States as shimmering with promise quite unlike the black and white worlds of documentary photography or Life magazine Linen postcards were enormously popular with close to a billion printed and sold Postcard America offers the first comprehensive study of these cards and their cultural significance Drawing on the production files of Curt Teich Co of Chicago the originator of linen postcards Jeffrey L Meikle reveals how photographic views were transformed into colorized postcard images often by means of manipulation adding and deleting details or collaging bits and pieces from several photos He presents two extensive portfolios of postcards landscapes and cityscapes that comprise a representative iconography of linen postcard views For each image Meikle explains the postcard s subject describes aspects of its production and places it in social and cultural contexts In the concluding chapter he shifts from historical interpretation to a contemporary viewpoint considering nostalgia as a motive for collectors and others who are fascinated today by these striking images Writing Copy For Dummies Jonathan Kranz,2011-05-04 Tips on writing to consumers and business to business Create captivating results oriented sales generating copy Need to produce winning copy for your business This fast fun guide takes you through every step of a
