1995 one of Canada's most distinguished authors of the twentieth century was known for his work as a novelist playwright critic journalist and professor This descriptive bibliography is dedicated to his writing career covering all publications from his first venture into print at the age of nine to works published posthumously to 2011 Entries include each of Davies' signed publications and those pseudonymous or anonymous writings he acknowledged having written Included are his plays novels journalism academic writing translations interviews speeches lectures unsigned articles and editorials films audio recordings and multimedia editions Also listed is a generous sampling of unsigned articles and editorials Using Davies' archives and the archives of other authors organizations and publishers Carl Spadoni and Judith Skelton Grant present A Bibliography of Robertson Davies to serve the research demands of Canadian literature and book history scholars Lifelines Christl Verduyn, 1995 Before her death in 1985 at the age of fifty one Marian Engel had published seven novels two collections of short stories and numerous essays and articles Despite this impressive output and various literary honours including a Governor General's Award for her novel Bear Engel's writing has not received the critical attention it deserves A comprehensive study of Engel's body of work Lifelines fills a major gap in Canadian literary criticism The Life Writings of Mary Baker McQuesten Mary J. Anderson, 2006-01-01 How did a privileged Victorian matron newly widowed and newly impoverished manage to raise and educate her six young children and restore her family to social prominence Mary Baker McQuesten's personal letters 155 of which were carefully selected by Mary J Anderson tell the story In her uninhibited style in letters mostly to her children Mary Baker McQuesten chronicles her financial struggles and her expectations The letters reveal her forthright opinions on a broad range of topics politics religion literature social sciences and even local gossip We learn how Mary assessed each of her children's strengths and weaknesses and directed each of their lives for the good of the family For example she sent her daughter Ruby out to teach so she could send her earnings home to educate Thomas the son Mary felt was most likely to succeed And succeed he did as a lawyer and mpp helping to build many of Hamilton's and Ontario's highways bridges parks and heritage sites and in doing so bringing the family back to social prominence Mary Baker McQuesten was also president of the Women's Missionary Society The appearance manner and eloquence of various ministers and politicians all come under her uninhibited scrutiny providing lively insights into the Victorian moral and social motivations of both men and women and about the gender conflicts that occurred both at home and abroad This book will satisfy many readers Those interested in the drama of Victorian society will enjoy the images of the stern Presbyterian matriarch the sacrificed female family mental illness the unresolved death of a husband and the dangers of social stigma Scholars looking for research material will find an abundance in the letters well annotated with details of the surrounding political social and current events of the times

Prison Life Writing Simon Rolston,2021-06-30 Prison Life Writing is the first full length study of one of the most controversial genres in American literature By exploring the complicated relationship between life writing and institutional power this book reveals the overlooked aesthetic innovations of incarcerated people and the surprising literary roots of the U S prison system Simon Rolston observes that the autobiographical work of incarcerated people is based on a conversion narrative a story arc that underpins the concept of prison rehabilitation and that sometimes serves the interests of the prison system rather than those on the inside Yet many imprisoned people rework the conversion narrative the way they repurpose other objects in prison Like a radio motor retooled into a tattoo gun the conversion narrative has been redefined by some authors for subversive purposes including questioning the ostensible emancipatory role of prison writing critiquing white supremacy and broadly reimagining autobiographical discourse An interdisciplinary work that brings life writing scholarship into conversation with prison studies and law and literature studies Prison Life Writing theorizes how life writing works in prison explains literature s complicated entanglements with institutional power and demonstrates the political and aesthetic innovations of one of America s most fascinating literary genres
